Minister.),1844 Gandhi, a Spiritual Journey M. V. Kamath,2007 This book explores the spiritual transformation of Mohandas Gandhi to the Mahatma Beginning with his childhood and his desire to search for the Truth from an early age it explores the influence of western thought on the young lawyer leading to an inner conflict that drew him to the study of comparative religion Gandhi came to believe in the equality of all religions and the principles of Truth and non violence which he applied to every aspect of life including politics In his later years he found focus and direction understanding the importance of prayer and discipline As the Mahatma his life exemplified spiritual practice and Truth Leading India to freedom through satyagraha he revealed the importance and relevance of non violence in every aspect of life Memories of the Flesh Myisha Tandika Priest,2003 Exploring Film and Christianity Rita Benis,Sérgio Dias Branco,2024-11-29 This book examines the connections between film and Christianity considering how films express and depict Christian faith and spirituality and provide experiences associated with it The notion of movement as immobility from Simone Weil is employed to describe film and its images in motion Its movements can reconnect us with the movements of the world those motions in which a mysterious sense of order what Weil calls immobility arises Film is understood as a privileged form to access inscrutable spiritual in visibilities that can be linked with Christian concepts and practices The chapters in Exploring Film and Christianity offer new studies of famous directors such as Andrei Tarkovsky and Robert Bresson combined with analyses of recent notable films including Terrence Malick's Knight of Cups, Martin Scorsese's Silence and Denis Villeneuve's Blade Runner 2049. Organized around the productive topics of theory, expression, depiction and experience, this volume is a valuable contribution to interdisciplinary research on film and Christianity. *A Memoir of the Life and Labors of the Rev. The Testimonial Uncanny Julia V. Emberley, 2014-09-30 Through the study of Indigenous literary and artistic practices from Canada, Australia, New Zealand and the United States, Julia V. Emberley examines the ways Indigenous storytelling discloses and repairs the traumatic impact of social violence in settler colonial nations. She focuses on Indigenous storytelling in a range of cultural practices including novels, plays, performances, media reports, Internet museum exhibits and graphic novels. In response to historical trauma such as that experienced at Indian residential schools as well as present-day violence against Indigenous bodies and land, Indigenous storytellers make use of Indigenous spirituality and the sacred to inform an ethics of hospitality. They provide uncanny configurations of political and social kinships between people between the past and the present and between the animate and inanimate. This book introduces readers to cultural practices and theoretical texts concerned with bringing Indigenous epistemologies to the discussion of trauma and colonial violence.

Memories of the Classical Underworld in Irish and Caribbean Literature Madeleine Scherer, 2021-09-20 Classical Memories is an intervention into the field of adaptation studies taking the example of classical reception to show that adaptation is a process that can be driven by and produce intertextual memories. I see classical memories as a memory-driven type of adaptation that draws on and reproduces schematic and otherwise de-contextualised conceptions of antiquity and its cultural exports in broadly speaking the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. These memory-driven adaptations differ often in significant ways from more traditional adaptations that seek to either continue or deconstruct a long-running tradition that can be traced back to antiquity as well as its canonical points of reception in later ages. When investigating such a popular and widespread set of narratives, characters and images like those that remain of Graeco-Roman antiquity, terms like adaptation and reception could and should be nuanced further to allow us to understand the complex interactions between modern works and classical antiquity in more detail, particularly when it pertains to postcolonial or post-digital classical reception. In Classical Memories, I propose that understanding certain types of adaptations as intertextual memories allows us to do just that. A Memoir of the Life and Labors of the Rev. Adoniram Judson Francis Wayland, 1853

Love's Forgiveness John Lippitt, 2020-09-25 Love's Forgiveness combines a discussion of the nature and ethics of forgiveness with a discussion inspired by Kierkegaard of the implications of considering interpersonal forgiveness as a work of love. It introduces the reader to some key questions that have exercised recent philosophers of forgiveness, discussing the relationship between forgiveness and an extended notion of resentment considering whether forgiveness should be conditional or unconditional showcasing a particular understanding of the latter and arguing that there are legitimate forms of third party forgiveness It then introduces the idea of forgiveness as a work of love through a discussion of Kierkegaard key New Testament passages on forgiveness and some contemporary work on the philosophy of love Drawing on both philosophy and the New Testament it offers an understanding of forgiveness that incorporates both agapic love and a proper concern for justice John Lippitt explores religious and secular uses of key metaphors for forgiveness and the idea of forgivingness as a character trait suggesting that seeking to correct for various cognitive biases is key to the development of such a virtue and connecting it to other putative virtues such as humility and hope Lippitt draws on both Kierkegaard s discourse literature and contemporary philosophical work on these latter characteristics before turning to a discussion of the nature of self forgiveness Throughout the book the philosophical and theological literature is rooted in a discussion of various forgiveness narratives including Helen Prejean s Dead Man Walking Thordis Elva and Tom Stranger s South of Forgiveness and Ian McEwan s Atonement
