increasing strategic importance This book explores Iran's role as a regional power focusing on relations with South Caucasus countries Azerbaijan and Armenia It outlines the historical context including Persia's rule of these countries before the nineteenth century and discusses Iran's approach to foreign and regional policy and how both internal and international factors shape these policies The book assesses Iran Azerbaijan and Iran Armenia bilateral relations to demonstrate how those policies translate in Iran's regional and bilateral relations The book concludes by considering how Iran's relations in the region are likely to develop in the future World Heritage and tourism in a changing climate Markham, Adam, Osipova, Elena, Lafrenz Samuels, Kathryn, Caldas, Astrid, 2016-06-06

Aucune information saisie Magazines, Tourism, and Nation-Building in Mexico Claire Lindsay, 2018-11-20 This open access book discusses the relationship between periodicals tourism and nation building in Mexico It enquires into how magazines a staple form of the promotional apparatus of tourism since its inception articulated an imaginative geography of Mexico at a time when that industry became a critical means of economic recovery and political stability after the Revolution Notwithstanding their vogue popularity reach and close affiliations to commerce and state over several decades magazines have not received any sustained critical attention in the scholarship on that period This book aims to redress that oversight It argues that illustrated magazines like Mexican Folkways 1925 1937 and Mexico This Month 1955 1971 offer rich and compelling materials in that regard not only as unique tools for interrogating the ramifications of tourism on the country's reconstruction but as autonomous objects of study that form a vital if complex part of Mexico's visual culture Linking agriculture and tourism to strengthen agrifood systems in Asia and the Pacific Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2023-08-03 Agrifood systems in Asia and the Pacific can be strengthened by tapping on agrifood tourism linkages When tourism and agrifood systems interact both synergies and competition appear Agriculture and tourism compete between themselves and other sectors for land water labour capital and transport and logistics services Cross sectoral synergies arise when agriculture and tourism influence each other through their respective demand conditions and changes in the enabling environment These cross sectoral synergies can be instrumental in strengthening agrifood systems in the region and addressing interlinked crises in the post pandemic era Governments across Asia and the Pacific have acknowledged the potential of tapping into agrifood tourism linkages to advance sustainable development in both urban food tourism and rural areas mostly agricultural tourism and are implementing efforts to develop this subsector Agrifood tourism linkages can create income generating opportunities for farmers and tourism operators boost employment and stimulate overall economic growth promote the development of sustainable agrifood systems prevent rural youth outmigration and help preserve culinary and agricultural heritage This publication guides policymakers in the region in the preparation of a strategic plan aimed at developing agrifood tourism and the tourism food value chain as drivers of sustainable development The successful positioning of a country or location as a culinary or agricultural tourism destination and the creation of synergies between the agriculture and tourism sectors requires a shared vision and coordination between policymakers destination managers tourism and agrifood businesses chefs farmers and other key stakeholders The Gambia International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2015-04-22 KEY ISSUES

Background The Gambian economy is facing urgent balance of payments needs triggered mostly by the impact of the regional Ebola outbreak on tourism Although the country remains Ebola free the regional outbreak is expected to cut by more than half tourism receipts for the 2014 15 season During 2014 15 the impact of the shocks on the balance of payments offset in part by lower global fuel prices is estimated to be 40 million over 5 percent of 2015 GDP Policy slippages and persistent financial difficulties in public enterprises have exacerbated the problems and pushed The Gambia s ECF arrangement off track In their Letter of Intent the authorities have notified the Fund of their decision to cancel the arrangement Request The authorities are requesting support under the RCF in an amount of SDR 7 775 million or equivalent to 25 percent of quota to cope with the urgent balance of payments needs and a one year staff monitored program SMP to guide policy implementation before returning to a successor ECF arrangement provided policies remain on track Main policy commitments The authorities have taken a number of upfront policy actions The approved 2015 budget envisages lowering net domestic borrowing NDB to 1 percent of GDP in 2015 from 121 4 percent in 2014 anchored by a set of revenue and expenditure measures and complemented by some 22 million in external budget support The authorities have taken steps to resolve the financial problems of key public enterprises and intend to take measures to secure their medium term fiscal consolidation and poverty reduction objectives Staff s view Staff supports the authorities request Staff views the package of measures articulated in the attached letter of intent as representing a considerable effort The RCF disbursement would augment the authorities own strong adjustment efforts help catalyze additional donor financing and give the authorities the time needed to develop their medium term adjustment plans The SMP will provide the Gambian authorities an opportunity to establish a track record before moving to a successor ECF to which they aspire A period of monitoring will also allow the time needed to assess the impact of the shocks fully and hence better tailor the objectives of a successor ECF arrangement

Community Based Sustainable Tourism in Puerto Princesa City. Ugong Rock Adventures Case History 2014 Ronald Edilberto Ona, 2018-03-22 Project Report from the year 2018 in the subject Tourism Miscellaneous grade N A language English abstract Bunglon Cave is a jagged karst limestone tower standing out of the flatlands of alluvium and soil in the vicinity of Barangay Tagabine According to anecdotes from senior residents of the area the name Bunglon is a Tagbanua term for wild dogs that used to roam the cave The Cave is geographically situated at North 11 54 71 and East 70 31 73 From the 1970s until the 1990s the hill was trekked by young people for its scenic and natural beauty and became a popular hangout for the locals Aside from its recreational service Bunglon s forest provided an important livelihood for the Tagabine community whose occupations were mainly farming and fishing During that period slash and burn or kaingin farming was prevalent as well as the conversion of mangrove forests to fish pens The highly extractive and destructive nature of these two practices took its toll on the natural environment of Bunglon which in turn seriously affected the livelihood of the community In 1999 Mr Kenneth Kennedy and some member of the University of the Philippines Mountaineers UPM discovered one particular stalactite inside the cave which produced a haunting humming sound when knocked He named it Ugong Rock from the Tagalog word ugong for the humming sound it made Since then Bunglon Cave became more popular among the community members and visitors as Ugong Rock In the year 2000 the Environmental Legal Assistance Center ELAC an environmental nongovernment organization based in Puerto Princesa City visited Ugong Rock to study the unabated environmental degradation happening in the area as part of their project proposal on community based ecotourism in the Ulugan Bay area ELAC provided technical and legal assistance to discourage people from their environmentally destructive practices and to stop illegal activities conducted by some individuals who acted purely on self interest and disregarded the negative impacts of their activities to the environment As part of ELAC s activities on environmental awareness in the Ulugan Bay area they organized the Tagabine Community Tourism Association TCTA whose members were Barangay Tagabine residents who decided to join the proposed community based tourism project of ELAC

The Philippines and France: Discovery, Rediscovery Aileen S. Mendiola-Rau, 2019-04-01 THE DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE PHILIPPINES AND FRANCE DID NOT MERELY BEGIN OVER 70 YEARS AGO The journey of discovery began even earlier when French cartography was being developed as early routes to and around the Philippines were first being plotted by adventurous maritime explorers The cover of this book depicts this journey a French frigate bravely traverses the seas of Guillaume Delisle's 17th century world map headed eastward in search of new discoveries guided by the Philippine sun. As both countries rediscover each other by building an even better relationship in the future it will be a continuous journey of both discovery and rediscovery.

The Top Books of the Year Memorandum Of Tourism 2014 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Memorandum Of Tourism 2014 : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Memorandum Of Tourism 2014 : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Memorandum Of Tourism 2014 : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
