Electrical World ,1894 Sessional Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons,1902 Queen's University Frederick W. Gibson,1983-10-01 The author emphasizes the role of individuals and yet makes it quite evident that by the time of her centenary in the early days of World War II Queen s had developed an organic vitality through which the vicissitudes occasioned by external fortunes or by internal tensions could be transcended Throughout the period covered by this volume Queen s faced a long hard struggle for adequate resources for research in terms of space equipment and most importantly faculty time the gradual development of graduate work and the building of library resources There was firm and creative leadership through the crises of the war and its aftermath and a renewal of optimism through the final decades of this history In Search of Technological Excellence John Heywood,2025-09-04 The notion that Britain was losing its international industrial competitiveness has preoccupied governments since the Second World War Policymakers have sought to address this over the years and yet Britain s relative industrial decline has appeared to continue raising questions about its root causes In Search of Technological Excellence analyses the policymaking and policy implementation in the education of engineers and technologists from the 1945 report of the Percy Committee on Higher Technological Education to the conclusion of the Thatcher government's Enterprise in Higher Education Initiative Using a plethora of previously unpublished sources this book focuses on the untold story of what the reports of the three key committees in this fifty year period Percy 1945 Fielden 1963 and Finniston 1980 actually achieved in secondary and higher technological education The core themes of this volume include industrial training and its assessment the controversy over the structure of industrial sandwich courses the perceived requirements for qualified specialists the manpower controversy curriculum development creativity and innovation in engineering engineers as managers and engineering in schools Thought provoking and comprehensive In Search of Technological Excellence reflects on perennial problems to help clarify how this history can inform policymaking today and will be of interest to policymakers practitioners and students in engineering education and public administration

Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports, 1995 Social Science in the Making David C. Hammack, Stanton Wheeler, 1995-04-06 Together the historical essays in this volume provide the best account of how the Foundation moved away from its roots as a policy think tank This book of essays is the only extended treatment of the Foundation's history that includes both its distinguished early years and its emergence after World War II as the principal private foundation devoted to strengthening basic research in the social sciences ERIC WANNER president of the Russell Sage Foundation in his foreword to the volume The Building News and Engineering Journal, 1869 Telegraphic Journal and Monthly Illustrated Review of Electrical Science, 1922 Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
