Mr. Jefferson's Men J. B. Wilkins, 2003 A post 9 11 America sees a wave of suicide bombings by the members of the Al Qaeda terrorist organization who have slipped through the cracks and remain in the country The Federal Government facing the pressures of political correctness and dissent amongst enforcement means has its hands tied President Dobson leans on his old friend Todd Fox who is a professor at the University of Virginia Fox already in the planning stages with an intelligence shadow known as Jefferson commissions a collection of hand picked students at the University This collection known as the Liberators moves in an expeditious manner to train mask and prepare for surgical operations aimed at rooting out the remaining Al Qaeda cells in the country and freeing America of the festering explosions of evil

A User's Guide to Our Present World Herb Gruning, 2021-04-14 The reader is about to embark on a journey of discovery and perhaps even reckoning Religion and science have been understood as inherently at odds and inimical toward each other However both employ metaphor religion when it calls the spirit descending upon Jesus a dove science when it describes electrons as a current flowing through a wire for only fluids flow and electrons are not a fluid Both use myths some religions in the sense that there was a Golden Age of humans in a garden science when it promises unlimited progress Both enlist hypothetical entities some religions when a storm heralds that the gods are angry science with the existence of a vacuum and a frictionless surface And each bears its fundamentalist contingent just observe a debate between creationists and evolutionists and the zeal and fervor with which the Bible and Darwin must be defended at any cost no matter what Given all this it becomes readily apparent that religion and science display more in common than was once expected And that is precisely what is in peril in the following pages our expectations May the intrepid traveler benefit from the voyage
