Pop-Feminist Narratives Emily Spiers, 2018-04-12 In Pop Feminist Narratives Emily Spiers explores the recent phenomenon of pop feminism and pop feminist writing across North America Britain and Germany Pop feminism is characterised by its engagement with popular culture and consumerism its preoccupation with sexuality and transgression in relation to female agency and its thematisation of intergenerational feminist discord portrayed either as a damaging discursive construct or as a verifiable phenomenon requiring remediation Central to this volume is the question of theorising the female subject in a postfeminist neoliberal climate and the role played by genre and narrative in the articulation of contemporary pop feminist politics The heightened visibility of mainstream feminist discourse and feminist activism in recent years especially in North America Britain and Germany means that the time is ripe for a coherent comparative scholarly study of pop feminism as a transnational phenomenon This volume provides such an account of pop feminism in a manner which takes into account the varied and complex narrative strategies employed in the telling of pop feminist stories across multiple genres and platforms including pop literary fiction the popular guide to feminism film music and the digital

What Women Want Deborah L. Rhode, 2014 What Women Want comprehensively analyzes the challenges the feminist movement faces today and puts forward a new policy agenda for women

Persuasive Acts Shari J. Stenberg, Charlotte Hogg, 2020-03-03 In June 2015 Bree Newsome scaled the flagpole in front of South Carolina s state capitol and removed the Confederate flag The following month the Confederate flag was permanently removed from the state capitol Newsome is a compelling example of a twenty first century woman rhetor along with bloggers writers politicians activists artists and everyday social media users who give new meaning to Aristotle s ubiquitous definition of rhetoric as the discovery of the available means of persuasion Women s persuasive acts from the first two decades of the twenty first century include new technologies and repurposed old ones engaged not only to persuade but also to tell their stories to sponsor change and to challenge cultural forces that repress and oppress Persuasive Acts Women's Rhetorics in the Twenty First Century gathers an expansive array of voices and texts from well known figures including Hillary Rodham Clinton Malala Yousafzai Michelle Obama Lindy West Sonia Sotomayor and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie so that readers may converse with them and build rhetorics of their own Editors Shari J Stenberg and Charlotte Hogg have compiled timely and provocative rhetorics that represent critical issues and rhetorical affordances of the twenty first century Feminism and Power Mary

Caputi, 2013-05-16 Feminism and Power the Need for Critical Theory is a six chapter manuscript which offers an important critique of power feminism The latter having produced such spinoffs as grrrl power choice babe lipstick and stiletto feminisms encourages women to be strong self sufficient feisty and independent While I have no argument with much of that tough minded ideal I ask whether this brave new girl doesn't too readily acquiesce in a neo liberal ideology whose underlying tenets derive from American rugged individualism At its worst this strain within Third Wave feminism contains no critique of capitalism no distance on neoliberal theory no effort to address the injustices contained in globalization's asymmetries and the industrialized North's exploitation of developing countries Feminism and Power the Need for Critical Theory therefore argues that the critical theories of Theodor Adorno and Jacques Derrida have much to offer feminism and a feminist understanding of female empowerment Its pages rely on Adorno's assertion that it is only by allowing the sufferer to speak that we can unveil social truth rather than be duped by the bravado of victory culture Similarly it demonstrates how Derrida's insistence on the trace as well as the asymmetries of friendship and hospitality lead feminism away from the perils of contented triumphalism The book promotes listening as a paradigmatic feminist gesture rather than always speaking up and out The No-nonsense Guide to Women's Rights Nikki van der Gaag, 2008 Examines the advances that have been made towards ensuring the rights of women It looks below the surface to find out what the reality is for women all around the world and shows how in this post feminist age women's rights are still very much an issue Contains a brief history of women's rights from 900BC to the present day and numerous text boxes with case studies charts and graphs to illustrate points clearly Nikki van der Gaag is the former editorial director and co editor of New Internationalist magazine The Politics of Third Wave Feminisms E. Evans, 2015-04-08 The past twenty years have witnessed a renewal of interest in feminist activism on both sides of the Atlantic In part this has been a response to neoliberal and neoconservative attacks both implicit and explicit on the gains made by feminists during the 1960s and 70s This study adds a comparative dimension to the ongoing analysis of feminism and feminist activism by mapping analysing and theorising third wave feminisms in the US and Britain A key addition to Gender and Politics literature it explores third wave feminisms by situating them within a specific political context neoliberalism and in relation to feminist theories of intersectionality both of which present radical opportunities and practical challenges for feminism and the feminist movement Elizabeth Evans is Lecturer in Politics at the University of Bristol Her research focuses on gender and politics including engagement with formal processes and political activism She has published widely on aspects of feminism gender and politics and her previous book Gender and the Liberal Democrats was published in 2011 He Said What Victoria Zackheim, 2011 gender studies Outdated Samhita Mukhopadhyay, 2011-09-27 Romance and love are in a state of crisis Statistically speaking young women today are living romantic lives of all kinds but they re still feeling bogged down by social cultural economic and familial pressures to love in a certain way Young women in the modern world have greater flexibility than ever when it comes to who we choose to love and how we choose to love them but while social circumstances may have changed since our parents generation certain life expectations remain In Outdated Samhita Mukhopadhyay addresses the difficulty of negotiating loving relationships within the borderlands of race culture class and sexuality and of holding true to our convictions and maintaining our independence while we do it Outdated analyzes how different forms of media cultural norms family pressure and even laws are produced to scare women into believing that if they don t devote themselves to finding a man they ll be doomed to a life of loneliness and shame Using interviews with young women that are living around between within and outside of the romantic industrial complex Mukhopadhyay weaves a narrative of the alternative ways that women today have elected to live their lives and in doing so offers a fresh feminist look at an old topic How do diverse independent young women date happily and successfully and outside of the box The Gospel of Mary Magdalena And Me Rethy Devi, 2021-08-31 I m pleased to introduce my novel I have invested last 10 years of my life researching writing and rewriting this book More than 500 books I have read before I wrote this novel Born out of diversity each of these women lived apart for centuries without any meeting finally provides a context and a narrative style unique to this novel And it unravels a freshness of spirit The tug of war between the ideologies of the east and west the interplay of similarities in human nature spread over a vast expanse of time help interpret and understand herself The story draws its inspiration from my interest in the intriguing nature of feminist ideas alongside spirituality and sexuality It was a sincere effort to highlight my passion for feminist philosophies psychology and politics I chose to write a fiction as I enjoy telling stories and found it a good medium to weave in my other interests in sociology history metaphysics and quantum physics The first part of the novel deals with the recital of life experiences of Mary Magdalene who lived nearly two thousand years ago there was a noble woman called Lexmi who lived in modern era In the second part Lexmi relates to Mary Magdalene her woes as a philosopher and her frustrations reflective of life in today s world War is just like terrorism 20 million people died in the two world Wars and 10 million people vanished at the time of partition of India My novel is seriously discussing these issues
