Conceptual Maths Peter Mattock, 2023-04-05 Written by Peter Mattock Conceptual Maths Teaching about rather than just how to do mathematics in schools aims to empower teachers to support students on a comprehensive and coherent journey through school mathematics Showcasing the best models metaphors and representations it provides excellent examples explanations and exercises that can be used across the curriculum Concepts are at the heart of the study of mathematics They are the ideas that remain constant whenever they are encountered but which combine and build upon each other to create the mathematical universe It is the structure of each concept that gives rise to the procedures that are used in calculation and problem solving and by learning about these structures a learner can make sense of how different processes work and use them flexibly as need demands In his first book Visible Maths Peter Mattock focused on the use of representations and manipulatives as images and tools and how this can provide a window into some of these mathematical structures His aim in Conceptual Maths is to go deeper beyond the procedures and to shed greater light on the structures of the subject's different concepts The book explores how a variety of visual tools and techniques can be used in the classroom to deepen pupils' understanding of mathematical structures concepts and operations including number addition and subtraction multiplication and multiples division and factors proportionality functionality measures accuracy probability shape and transformation and vectors among many others In so doing Peter equips teachers with the confidence and practical know how to help learners assimilate knowledge of mathematical concepts into their schema and take their learning to the next level Containing numerous full colour diagrams and models to illustrate the conceptual takeaways and teaching techniques discussed Conceptual Maths also includes a glossary covering the key mathematical terms Suitable for teachers of maths in primary secondary and post 16 settings

Research for Educational Change Jill Adler, Anna Sfard, 2016-06-17

Research for Educational Change presents ways in which educational research can fulfil its commitments to educational practice Focussing its discussion within the context of mathematics education it argues that while research generated insights can have beneficial effects on learning and teaching the question of how these effects are to be generated and sustained is far from evident The question of how to turn research into educational improvement is discussed here in the context of learning and teaching hindered by poverty and social injustice In the first part of the book four teams of researchers use different methodologies while analysing the same corpus of data collected in a South African mathematics classroom In the second part each of these teams makes a specific proposal about what can be done and how so that its research generated insights have a tangible beneficial impact on what is happening in mathematical classrooms Combining two discourses that of researchers speaking to one another and that of researchers communicating their insights to those responsible for educational practice the book deals with the perennial question of communication between those who study educational processes and those who are directly responsible for teacher education educational research and classroom practices This book will be key reading for postgraduates researchers and academics in education and particularly in the areas of mathematics education education research teacher education and classroom practice It will also appeal to teacher educators practitioners and undergraduate students interested in educational research

New Frontiers for College Education Jim Gallacher, Fiona Reeve, 2018-08-06 The college sector is facing a growing number of new challenges caused by technological change, globalisation and the growth of mass higher education. New Frontiers for College Education considers the impact these changes have had and explores the developing role of college education in countries throughout the world. Whilst analysing the issues associated with providing high quality vocational education and training, the book also reflects on the role of colleges in widening access to both further and higher education. Drawing together contributions from leading international academics, policymakers and practitioners, the book explores common themes across these diverse societies as well as some of the key challenges experienced within individual countries. It considers the distinctive contributions that colleges can make in responding to these challenges through apprenticeships and other types of vocational education and training. Contributors discuss the growing emphasis on creating more integrated systems of tertiary education, recognising that colleges and universities are now expected to work more closely together and that these diverse demands can be difficult to reconcile. Providing an authoritative and timely analysis of the changing role of colleges in contemporary society, this book will be of great interest to academics, researchers and postgraduate students in the areas of further and higher education, vocational education and training, lifelong learning and skills development. It should also be essential reading for policymakers as well as practitioners working in colleges and other institutions of higher and further education.

Born to Fail?: Social Mobility: A Working Class View Sonia Blandford, 2017-10-02 Sonia Blandford, CEO of award-winning charity Achievement for All, writes brilliantly and honestly about the facing up to the realities of the white working class and how to address social mobility from the inside. No one in the UK is better placed than Sonia to write about the struggles of white working class pupils in our schools. She grew up on the Allied Estate in Hounslow and was the first member of her family to pursue education beyond the age of 14 and was also the first to attend university. Sonia lost her mother when she took an accidental overdose when she couldn't read the doctor's prescription. This tragic failing served as one of the inspirations for her to set up the award-winning Achievement for All organisation, who work with thousands of schools to help close the attainment gap. Born to Fail tackles head-on issues such as why education often doesn't matter to the working class, how education has failed to deliver for them, the importance of self-belief, action and confidence, and how the Early Years is the crucial time to build success from the start.
