Gallagher,1986      Mrs Caroline Spelman Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Committee on Standards and Privileges,2009 On 9 June 2008 Mrs Caroline Spelman MP for Meriden asked the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards to investigate the circumstances of the employment of a member of her staff from 1997 to 1999 following press reports that parliamentary allowances may have been misused The allegation is that Mrs Spelman subsidised the cost of nannying services out of her parliamentary allowances and that her administration assistant Mrs Haynes did not undertake secretarial or administrative duties to the extent for which she was paid The Commissioner conducted a most thorough investigation and has concluded that the arrangements entered into by Mrs Spelman with Mrs Haynes had the unintended effect of misapplying some of Mrs Spelman s parliamentary allowances for non parliamentary purposes In effect there was an element of cross subsidy The Commissioner has reached this conclusion on the basis of the high standard of proof adopted by him for this inquiry i e that it is significantly more likely to be true than not to be true The Committee agrees with the Commissioner s conclusion that for two years from June 1997 Mrs Spelman paid Mrs Haynes from her parliamentary allowances a salary as her part time administration assistant that enabled Mrs Haynes to work also as her nanny without additional or separate financial reward This had the effect of misapplying part of Mrs Spelman s parliamentary allowances This breach which occurred at a time when both the Rules and expectations were less stringent than they are now was unintentional Mrs Spelman has accepted the Commissioner s findings and has agreed to pay back the misapplied sums      The State of Wisconsin Blue Book ,1977      Higher Education Governance in East Asia Jung Cheol Shin,2018-10-01 This book deepens our understanding of how higher education governance has recently changed in the rapidly developing higher education systems of East Asia Focusing on China Japan Korea Malaysia and Taiwan it explains the implications of how state centered political systems interpret political and economic environments such as neoliberalism as well as how each system is coping with global pressures The book makes a valuable contribution to organization studies in higher education by investigating and detailing how individual higher education institutions are responding to their new environments      Blue Book ,1987      A Handbook of the Best Private Schools of the United States and Canada ,1920      A Handbook of American Private Schools ,1920      Conduct of Mr Derek Conway Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee on Standards and Privileges,2008-01-28 Following a memorandum submitted by the former Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards this report is a consequence of a complaint against Mr Derek Conway Member for Old Bexley and Sidcup from a Mr Michael Barnbrook The complaint concerned the fact that Mr Conway was paying his son 981 a month from his Parliamentary Staffing Allowance while his son was in full time education at Newcastle University Also that he had refused to disclose what work his son was doing on his behalf or the hours his son worked There appears to be no dispute over the fact Mr Conway employed his younger son as a part time assistant from 1 September 2004 to 24 August 2007 His job description was based on a standard job description as set out by the Department of Resources DFA and his contract of employment provided he worked for 17 hours a week He was originally employed on a salary of 10 000 per annum increased to 11 773 which was backdated to the start of his employment His basic salary was within the pay range set by the DFA His son was also given four one off sums intended as in lieu of an annual salary uprating and bonuses for good work The Committee has set out the following responses including that Mr Conway paid bonuses to his son in excess of the maximum permitted levels between 2005 2008 based on the Parliamentary Commissioner s assessment of the duties Mr Conway s son was asked to perform it was unlikely he required all the contracted hours he was being paid for the Committee therefore expresses scepticism that Mr Conway s son worked the permitted contracted hours per week there is no record of the work his son is supposed to have done or a record of the hours kept so any remuneration given was at the very least an improper use of the Parliamentary allowances or at worst a serious diversion of public funds that the salary paid to his son was therefore a misuse of the Staffing Allowance that as a consequence Mr Conway should repay the overpaid bonus funds together with the associated pension contribution the Committee stated that it regards this case as a serious breach of the rules and recommends Mr Conway be suspended from the service of the House for 10 sitting days and also apologise to the House for his shortcomings by way of a personal statement      Human Resources JumpStart Anne M. Parliament. House of Commons. Committee on Standards and Privileges,2009 This is the second report Committee on Standards and Privileges HCP 207 session 2008 09 on Mr Derek Conway MP the first was published January 2008 HCP 280 session 2007 08 ISBN 9780215038449 In the first report the Committee accepted the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards investigation that Mr Derek Conway had overpaid his son Freddie Conway whom he had employed as his Parliamentary research assistant and had awarded him excessive bonuses The Committee concluded that a serious breach of the rules had taken place A further complaint was made against Mr Conway in employing his elder son Henry Conway The Committee has established that Henry Conway was employed from 1 July 2001 to 1 October 2004 At the time he was a full time student His duties as a research assistant were set out in his contract of employment and were wide ranging including dealing with constituents In practice according to Henry Conway and Mr Conway half his time was spent on research related work and about half on administrative and office tasks No documentary or other hard evidence of the work carried out by Henry Conway has survived The Commissioner concludes on the basis of the evidence seen that Henry Conway did undertake work for Mr Conway during the period of his employment and that there is insufficient evidence to substantiate the allegation that Henry Conway failed to work the 18 hours a week for which he was contracted The Committee has accepted the Commissioner s conclusion The Committee further accepted the Commissioner s conclusions that Henry Conway s basic research and administrative skills were consistent with Mr Conway s requirements as his employer and that the starting salary at 800 above the minimum was not unreasonably high in the circumstances at the time and the decisions to award bonus and overtime payments were not unreasonable The Committee though agrees with the Commissioner that for the last 21 2 years of his employment Henry Conway s salary was unnecessarily high and that by paying this amount My Conway had breached the rules of the House The Committee expects Mr Conway to apologise to the House for his breach by writing to the Chairman of the Committee and further recommends he reimburse the House in full for the cost of the overpayments to Henry Conway totalling 3 757 83     The compositor's handbook Thomas Ford,1854
