32. Frankfurter Buchmesse, 1980 Numeracy in Nursing and Healthcare Pearl Shihab, 2010 Competency in Maths is essential for safe nursing practice this is the only text to clearly explain Maths specifically for students in nursing and healthcare expelling the tears and frustration that can be experienced whilst trying to grapple with the subject The author has been teaching anatomy physiology and pharmacology to nursing students for 25 years and is well placed to understand the fears that students have when addressing numbers and maths This text will help students to handle numbers confidently in the administration of drugs and other practice settings Clinical examples will be used to illustrate the use of arithmetic and the student will be able to work at their own pace throughout In addition to drug calculations the text will allow students to feel confident in other practice settings such as calculating the body mass index BMI of a patient reading and interpreting a blood result back from the lab interpreting demographic data calculating the nutritional intake for a patient and measuring a patient's blood pressure pulse and temperature Shihab draws on her 25 years of teaching experience to provide a text devoted specifically to competency in the often dreaded area of maths for student nurses THES Feb 2010 MyMathLab is really good I especially like the common clinical measurements and physiological measurement questions because I can really relate them to practice I even take the book to practice with me because it is such an easy read for me as I have never worked in healthcare before I feel like I have learnt a lot from the book Wayne Fleming Nursing Student Manchester Metropolitan University Passing Calculations Tests in Nursing Susan Starkings, Larry Krause, 2018-01-27 With an easy to use format this book is all you need to face calculations tests with confidence and pass the first time It teaches simple numeracy skills that will stand you in good stead both during your initial nurse training and your career in practice This new
