A Casebook of Decolonizing Pedagogical Practices for Second Language Teacher Education Amy B. Gooden, 2024-09-23 Authentic practice for promoting equitable learning environments for all students

Active Literacy Across the Curriculum Heidi Hayes Jacobs, 2017-09-25 Help students become more confident and successful readers, writers, and thinkers in today's world. In this new edition of a bestseller, highly acclaimed author and speaker Heidi Hayes Jacobs offers practical ideas for closing the literacy gap by teaching classic literacies (reading, writing, speaking, and listening) along with essential new literacies (digital media and global). The expanded second edition features Heidi's latest work on the new literacies and provides enhanced versions of strategies designed to help educators integrate critical language skills into their daily operational curriculum. These strategies include: Revising and expanding the role of all teachers so that they see themselves as classical language and contemporary literacy teachers; Separating vocabulary into three distinctive types with distinctive instructional approaches to sustain and extend independent language development; Building creative and visual notetaking and sketchnoting strategies; Designing media projects for every class level and employing a consistent editing and revision policy for writing assignments; Using a formal approach to develop speaking skills through four discussion types to increase civil public discourse; Employing direct technical instruction that promotes the use of the human voice and body as a speaking and communication instrument; Using Curriculum Mapping to develop formal benchmark assessments for active literacy and new literacy cultivation in every subject and on every level. Each chapter is focused on a specific strategy and includes practical examples so you can easily implement the ideas no matter what grade level or subject area you teach.

Writer's Workshop for the Common Core Warren Combs, 2014-01-09 Writing instruction expert Warren Combs presents a step-by-step plan for teaching writing workshops that are aligned to the Common Core State Standards. The book is filled with practical mini-lessons, strategies, and tools for every stage of the writing process, from prewriting through publication. Scripting is provided to show teachers how to model each strategy for students. In addition, Dr. Combs shows how teachers can use the following elements: The concepts Voice, Pictures, and Flow to help students understand the essential elements of writing; The words Invite, Model, Write, Look, and Learn to model effective writing for students and have them learn from your example; Revision strategies such as Jot and Blend; Combining Sentences; Writing Leads and Writing Closes; Peer revision using Peer Assisted Learning Systems (PALS); Student self-assessment rubrics. The book also includes scoring guides and pacing guides to help teachers implement writing workshops more easily. As Dr. Combs demonstrates, you can give workshops more structure while still making writing come alive for your students.

Synchronizing Success Maren Koepf, 2008 At Moreland Hills Elementary School, something remarkable is taking place, writes district literacy specialist Maren Koepf.
