Aurora 7 Colin Burgess, 2015-08-28 TO A NATION enthralled by the heroic exploits of the Mercury astronauts the launch of Lt Cmdr Scott Carpenter on NASA's second orbital space flight was a renewed cause for pride jubilation and celebration Within hours that excitement had given way to stunned disbelief and anxiety as shaken broadcasters began preparing the American public for the very real possibility that an American astronaut and his spacecraft may have been lost at sea In fact it had been a very close call Completely out of fuel and forced to manually guide Aurora 7 through the frightening inferno of re entry Carpenter brought the Mercury spacecraft down to a safe splashdown in the ocean In doing so he controversially overshot the intended landing zone Despite his efforts Carpenter's performance on the MA 7 mission was later derided by powerful figures within NASA He would never fly into space again Taking temporary leave of NASA Carpenter participated in the U S Navy's pioneering Sealab program For a record 30 days he lived and worked aboard a pressurized habitat resting on the floor of the ocean becoming the nation's first astronaut aquanaut explorer Following extensive research conducted by noted spaceflight historian Colin Burgess the drama filled flight of Aurora 7 is faithfully recounted in this engrossing book along with the personal recollections of Scott Carpenter and those closest to the actual events

All Made Up Rae Nudson, 2021-07-13 A fascinating journey through history and culture examining how makeup affects self empowerment how people have used it to define and defy their roles in society and why we all need to care There is a history and a cultural significance that comes with wearing cat eye inspired liner or a bold red lip one that many women feel to this day even if we don't realize exactly why Increasingly people of all genders are wrestling with what it means to be a woman living in a patriarchy and part of that is how looking like a woman whatever that means affects people's real lives Through the stories of famous women like Cleopatra Empress Wu Madam C J Walker Elizabeth Taylor and Marsha P Johnson Rae Nudson unpacks makeup's cultural impact including how it can be used to shape a personal or cultural narrative how often beauty standards align with whiteness how and when it can be used for safety and its function in the workplace to name a few examples Every woman has had to make a very personal choice about her relationship with makeup and consciously or unconsciously every woman knows that the choice is never entirely hers to make This book also holds space for complicating factors especially the ways that beauty standards differ across race class and culture Engaging and informative All Made Up will expand the discussion around what it means to participate in creating your own self image
