The English Reader: a Key in the English Language and Literature J. S. S. Rothwell, 1872      The English Reader J. S. S. Rothwell, 1896      The West African Methodist Collegiate School, 1911-2021 Christopher E. S. Warburton, 2021-12-22 The West African Methodist Collegiate School 1911 2021 presents an intricate analysis of challenging missionary work in Sierra Leone and West Africa In meticulous detail the book revisits an era that spans the slave trade and the manumission of slaves and examines the ways that missionaries helped to educate former slaves and free men for a viable form of existence The checkered history of the school chronicles the adversities courage and determination of men who dared to preserve an educational institution that was designed to provide religious and secular education In more elaborate terms the book reveals how changing circumstances and conditions of the twenty first century can obscure a nineteenth century concept when socioeconomic challenges and the vicissitudes of war and epidemics become too overpowering      Resources in Education ,2001-10      Catalogue of the Keiogijuku Library ,1912      Developmental Dyslexia and Anaphora Resolution in English L1/L2 Nicoletta Simi, 2021-06-15 This book presents the results of three experimental studies focusing on the ability of people with dyslexia to resolve ambiguous anaphoric sentences where concrete and abstract referents are present Each study represents a step in the ongoing investigation of this issue and stems from questions left unanswered by previous research This work is primarily inspired by the desire to gain a better understanding of the role of syntactic and lexical knowledge in text comprehension and more specifically of the effects of word concreteness and abstractness in anaphora resolution contexts for readers with dyslexia The book also investigates the resources necessary to process ambiguous anaphoric sentences The innovative methodology implemented here comprises both experimental techniques such as eye tracking and the use of questionnaires and standardised tests to answer specific research questions It also puts forward a hypothesis that explains the different deficits manifesting in people with dyslexia and suggests that in reading comprehension tasks the known impairment in people with dyslexia s working memory may hinder their ability to efficiently and accurately perform tasks involving procedural memory resources As a consequence this impairment would emerge as disruptions of people with dyslexia s semantic and syntactic competence as well as their functioning in complex tasks which are particularly demanding in terms of working memory resources      A Guide to School Certificate ENGLISH ,      Language at Work British Association for Applied Linguistics. Meeting, 1998 The 31st BAAL Annual Meeting held in September 1997 at the University of Birmingham had as its theme Language at Work The papers in this collection although they relate to a wide variety of different contexts all deal with people using language as part of their working life and they are all concerned with how language functions to construct participant relationships and institutions In short these papers demonstrate how people at work make language for them      English Studies in the 21st Century Zekiye Antakyalıoğlu, Kyriaki Asiatidou, Ela İpek Gündüz, Enes Kavak, Gamze Almacıoğlu, 2020-03-06 English Studies in the 21st Century presents the results of recent academic research concerning a wide spectrum of subjects including politics psychology religion philosophy history culture aesthetics and education related to literary cultural and language studies Specifically this collection includes scholarly reflections interpretations criticisms and experiments that both strengthen and challenge dominant perspectives on the English literary tradition and contribute to a multifaceted discussion of contemporary drama and theater contemporary theory and fiction Neo Victorianism the Anthropocene posthumanism and interdisciplinary studies in English including linguistics and ELT The book will be an ideal reference for both academics and students

Regulating Refugee Protection Through Social Welfare Peter Billings,2022-07-15 This book analyses the use and abuse of social welfare as a means of border control for asylum seekers and refugees in Australia Offering an unparalleled critique of the regulation and deterrence of protection seekers via the denial or depletion of social welfare supports the book includes contributions from legal scholars social scientists behavioural scientists and philosophers in tandem with the critical insights and knowledge supplied by refugees It is organised in three parts each framed by a commentary that serves as an introduction as well as offering pertinent comparative perspectives from Europe Part One comprises three chapters a rights based analysis of Australia s hostile environment for protection seekers a searing critique of welfare policing of asylum seekers as necropolitics and a unique philosophical perspective that grounds scrutiny of Australia s policing of asylum seekers Part Two contains five chapters that uncover and explore the lived experiences and adverse impacts of different social welfare restrictions for refugee protection seekers Finally the chapters in Part Three offer distinct views on human rights advocacy movements and methods and the scope for resistance and change to the status quo This book will appeal to an international as well as an Australian readership with interests in the areas of human rights immigration and refugee law social welfare law policy social work and public health

Language variation and change in social networks Robin Dodsworth, Richard A. Benton, 2019-08-21 This monograph takes up recent advances in social network methods in sociology together with data on economic segregation in order to build a quantitative analysis of the class and network effects implicated in vowel change in a Southern American city Studies of sociolinguistic variation in urban spaces have uncovered durable patterns of linguistic difference such as the maintenance of blue collar white collar distinctions in the case of stable linguistic variables But the underlying interactional origins of these patterns and the interactional reasons for their durability are not well understood due in part to the near absence of large scale network investigation This book undertakes a sociolinguistic network analysis of data from the Raleigh corpus a set of conversational interviews collected from natives of Raleigh North Carolina from 2008 2017 Acoustic analysis of the corpus shows the rapid ongoing retreat from the Southern Vowel Shift and increasing participation in national vowel changes The social distribution of these trends is explored via standard social factors such as occupation as well as innovative network variables including a measure of nestedness in the community network The book aims to pursue new network based questions about sociolinguistic variation that can be applied to other corpora making this key reading for students and researchers in sociolinguistics and historical linguistics as well as those interested in further understanding how existing quantitative network methods from sociological research might be applied to sociolinguistic data
