Atmosphere giving emo its name in the late 90s to Juice WRLD capturing every corner of rap's attention with his wailing high school angst this was the definitive sound of bugged out youth Emo rap is visceral It's Lil Peep with the pink and black split dye singing about bleeding out after getting dumped Lil Uzi Vert making a suicidal club smash that soundtracks lavish Las Vegas day parties XXXTentacion stirring controversy while topping the charts with Sad Artists recorded into old computers and these records traveled through the digital portals of SoundCloud They didn't need record deals they just needed WiFi Listeners and their favorite acts had a singular meeting ground everyone was trapped in their bedrooms and hoping to feel something A network of reposts comments and word of mouth allowed the genre to bubble up nationally While the press didn't know what to make of Yung Lean and the Sad Boys viral rise online the fans understood on contact that this was their music By the turn of the decade the three most prominent emo rappers Lil Peep XXXTentacion and Juice WRLD had lost their lives to overdoses and gun violence Stunted by tragedy Emo shrunk down into an ornament to decorate pop rap tunes We're now a far cry from Juice's All Girls Are The Same rewriting the mainstream playbook as the next iteration of Day N Nite But the numbers for the young artists we've lost tell a story of resilience For those who were there during the whirlwind of the 2010s emo's imprint has not faded Millions upon millions of fans worldwide turn to this music as twilight grips them and they stare off into their own emotional voids It's whiny It's base And it speaks to the truth of the matter every era will have its crybabies
