- If traffic signs or traffic road markings does not prohibit overtaking and only if overtaking is safe to do so
- The driver ahead of you indicates that he is going to turn right, and you have enough room to pass on the left
- The car travelling ahead is in a very street, which is wide enough for two or more vehicles to travel close to each other, whether or not lanes have been marked on the road surface

- Indicate your intention to continue before you change lanes by using indicators or hand signals.
- After signaling, indicate that you intend to move back to the lane in which you were previously traveling.

When you are conducting stationary activities, especially before you begin:

- Have a strong interest for passengers arriving or departing from the station
- Have a strong interest for commuters and citizens

Abstract

1. Give your best estimate of your stopping distance behind the vehicle in front of you.
2. The distance should be enough to be able to stop your car in a complete stop should the vehicle in front of you make an emergency stop.
3. A safe stopping will depend on the speed at which you are travelling.
4. An estimate must be made with a 2 second time delay behind the vehicle ahead of you to keep a distance of three car lengths behind the vehicle in front of you.
