Wong,2013-05-18 The hardcore views and lampoons presented here are entirely my own ruthlessly analyzed and synthesized mainly from New Testament sources If you ask me why I write such a nasty book my retort is why do the Gospel narrators write such bad asinine pious fucking fiction Why were the Gospel writers not serious and why do they make a joke of their god Jesus St Matthew should either be awarded Most Asinine Religious Writer of the Millennium or be sodomized with a broomstick Theologians are extremely lousy analytic thinkers For example they and the educated Christians dont even know or dare to answer this sticky question over 2 000 years Judas betrayed Jesus but what was the substance of the betrayal Was it over the stupid limpid Sermons on the Mount the Parable of Hidden Treasure or Parable of the Pearl of Great Price Be prepared for a rough ride This is PPG rated Pastor et Parental Guidance The Routledge Companion to Biofiction Lucia Boldrini,Laura Cernat,Alexandre Gefen,Michael Lackey,2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Biofiction provides readers with the history origins and evolution of this popular genre Featuring contributions from leading scholars in the field this authoritative collection foregrounds analyses of biofiction s core foundations through contemporary debates The volume is organized into seven sections Histories of biofiction Theoretical reflections on biofiction Biofiction national models and trans national constructions Biofiction as political intervention Biofictional case studies Activating lives early modern women and Authorial reflections This groundbreaking collection features works that refine our understanding of the genesis and evolution of biofiction theorize its unique and distinctive modes of signifying reflect on its value for the future and social justice chart new approaches for doing biofictional analysis and offer insights from authors of biofiction into the creative process This is the first collection to bring together the two main schools of interpreting biofiction the Francophone and Anglophone while also shedding light on biofictions in many languages from or about many continents and offering a platform to established and new voices alike It will be essential reading for students as well as advanced scholars interested in biographical fiction Ghost Storeys Cameron Macdonell,2017-07-04 Most studies of modern Gothic media assume that beyond the 1830s modern Gothic architecture and literature had very little in common The work of Ralph Adams Cram 1863 1942 America s most prolific Gothic Revival architect and an author of ghost stories challenges that assumption The first interdisciplinary study of Cram s aesthetics Cameron Macdonell s Ghost Storeys deconstructs the boundaries of Gothic architecture and literature through a microhistory of St Mary s Anglican Church in Walkerville Ontario Focusing on Cram and the church s main patron Edward Walker 1851 1915 Macdonell explores the intricate intersections of Gothic aesthetics architectural ethics literature theology cultural values and community construction in an Edwardian era company town When Walker commissioned the church he believed that its economy of salvation could save him from the syphilis that afflicted his body and stained his soul However while implementing that economy Cram whose architectural theory social commentary and ghost stories were pessimistic about reviving the Gothic in the modern world also created an architecture haunted by the sickness of humanity Painstakingly researched and lavishly illustrated Ghost Storeys redefines the allegorical relationship between a marginalized church and the Gothic Revival movement as a global interdisciplinary phenomenon Southey's Common-place Book Robert Southey, 1876 Original memoranda, etc Robert Southey, 1876 Reconstructing the Native South Melanie Benson Taylor, 2012-01-15 In Reconstructing the Native South Melanie Benson Taylor examines the diverse body of Native American literature in the contemporary U S South literature written by the descendants of tribes who evaded Removal and have maintained ties with their southeastern homelands In so doing Taylor advances a provocative even counterintuitive claim that the U S South and its Native American survivors have far more in common than mere geographical proximity Both cultures have long been haunted by separate histories of loss and nostalgia Taylor contends and the moments when those experiences converge in explicit and startling ways have yet to be investigated by scholars These convergences often bear the scars of protracted colonial antagonism appropriation and segregation and they share preoccupations with land sovereignty tradition dispossession subjugation purity and violence Taylor poses difficult questions in this work In the aftermath of Removal and colonial devastation what remains for Native and non Native southerners to be recovered Is it acceptable to identify an Indian lost cause Is a deep sense of hybridity and intercultural affiliation the only coherent way forward both for the New South and for its oldest inhabitants And in these newly entangled postcolonial environments has global capitalism emerged as the new enemy for the twenty first century Reconstructing the Native South is a compellingly original work that contributes to conversations in Native American southern and transnational American studies Aldous Huxley, Representative Man James Hull, 2004 This psychological reading of Huxley's oeuvre as a whole traces Huxley's self transformation in his books and aims to do justice to the artist and the person who was Aldous Huxley It is safe to regard as basic to his entire work the unfolding of the conflict we find so clearly delineated in his early short story Farcical History of Richard Greenow Limbo 1920 with Pearl Bellairs representing the emotional tradition that threatens the synthetic philosopher Huxley's own story is plainly visible even in Limbo and Crome Yellow 1921 but it is in Antic Hay 1923 that the pattern of the future assumes a solid foundation There we encounter in full force the tensions that follow him throughout his life on the one hand an extreme of sensuality and on the other a longing for the chaste pleasures for a quiet and mystical world completely different from that in which he found himself The question of the relations between body and mind as well as the mystery of human consciousness haunt him to the very last but after his mid life crisis depicted in Eyeless in Gaza 1936 a strong faith in the reality of a spiritual world is obvious In the end he even manages to reinstate the body in
