Googlism and Other Short Stories R C Natarajan, 2019-04-01 This collection of short stories is for the fast paced millennials whom the author calls The Post Googlist Generation who want everything hastily at their fingertips and on the go. The language has also shrunk in size to allow the pace. The world view of this generation is that what cannot be done through an app cannot and should not be done. Their expectations of a story are a striking start, a quickly built middle and an interesting end. Stories in the collection seek to meet these expectations of this generation talking to them in their own language. They also echo the changing lives and changing aspirations of the time. Occupational Frauds and Money Laundering Mayur Sharad Joshi, 2005 Introductory Economic Theory [NEHU, Shillong] HL Ahuja, This book begins with an introduction to economics highlighting the economic problem of scarcity and choice. Further it goes on and discusses the scope of economics as well as acquaints the students with the methodologies of economics. Basic microeconomic concepts such as demand supply, competitive market equilibrium, elasticity and indifference curve analysis of demand have been explained in a simple and lucid manner. The book also dwells into theories of production, distribution, rent, interest and profits. It also discusses the market structures prevailing in the capitalist economy, namely perfect competition and imperfect competition, thoroughly highlighting the sub categories of imperfect competition such as monopolistic competition, oligopoly and monopoly. Concepts of average revenue and marginal revenue have also been discussed in the book.
