Commit-Day 5

THANK AND BLISS

Imagines of Mary

by Brant Pitre and the Aquinas Institute team

The Church has celebrated the feast of the Annunciation for centuries. It is a day when we remember the moment when the Holy Spirit came upon the Virgin Mary, and the Word of God became flesh. This feast is a celebration of the Incarnation, the moment when God entered our world in the person of Jesus Christ. It is a day of joy and hope, for it is the day when God became one of us, and we became one with God.

Imagines of Mary are a beautiful way to remember the many ways in which Mary has been depicted in art and literature. From the Annunciation to the Visitation, from the Nativity to the Crucifixion, Mary has been shown in many different ways. Each image tells a story, and each story is a part of the larger story of the Christian faith. By looking at these images, we can learn more about Mary and the life of Jesus Christ. We can also learn more about ourselves and our relationship with God.

In the Annunciation, the angel Gabriel told the Virgin Mary that she was chosen to be the mother of the Son of God. This was a moment of great joy and hope for Mary, and it was a moment of great significance for the world. It was the moment when God entered our world in the person of Jesus Christ.

In the Visitation, Mary visited her cousin Elizabeth. Elizabeth was also a virgin, and she was also chosen to be the mother of the Son of God. This was a moment of great joy and hope for both women, and it was a moment of great significance for the world. It was the moment when God entered our world in the person of Jesus Christ.

In the Nativity, Mary gave birth to Jesus Christ. This was a moment of great joy and hope for the world, and it was a moment of great significance for the world. It was the moment when God entered our world in the person of Jesus Christ.

In the Crucifixion, Mary stood at the foot of the cross. This was a moment of great sorrow and pain for Mary, and it was a moment of great significance for the world. It was the moment when God entered our world in the person of Jesus Christ.

In the Resurrection, Mary was the first to see the risen Christ. This was a moment of great joy and hope for the world, and it was a moment of great significance for the world. It was the moment when God entered our world in the person of Jesus Christ.
