Garden Hope Schneir, Sia Hoyt, 2024-11-27 The power of a woman is most concretely observed in the seeds she plants day after day in the lives of those around her Soul Garden is a sizable collection of personal stories essays poems and recipes written to cultivate the motherly role of women by offering inspiration camaraderie and encouragement Contributors from across the country and around the world invite readers to put away their screens and to pick up this lovely tangible book in which they can find nourishment for the soul and tips for practical life Among the nine chapters are Nurture which encourages women in their call to care for the children and other people God has placed in their lives Ponder which considers the lessons blessings and challenges of motherhood Dwell which suggests ways to create a beautiful home regardless of a woman s budget and Fiat which honors the Blessed Virgin Mary as the model woman Soul Garden aims to strengthen the heart of the mother thereby strengthening the heart of the Church and of society itself Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings Kirstin Ringelberg, 2017-07-05 Were late nineteenth century gender boundaries as restrictive as is generally held In Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings Work Place Domestic Space Kirstin Ringelberg argues that it is time to bring the current re evaluation of the notion of separate spheres to these images Focusing on studio paintings by American artists William Merritt Chase and Mary Fairchild MacMonnies Low she explores how the home based painting studio existed outside of entrenched gendered divisions of public and private space and argues that representations of these studios are at odds with standard perceptions of the images their creators and the concept of gender in the nineteenth century Unlike most of their bourgeois contemporaries Gilded Age artists whether male or female often melded the worlds of work and home Through analysis of both paintings and literature of the time Ringelberg reveals how art history continues to support a false dichotomy that in fact paintings that show women negotiating a complex combination of professionalism and domesticity are still overlooked in favor of those that emphasize women as decorative objects Redefining Gender in American Impressionist Studio Paintings challenges the dominant interpretation of American and European Impressionism and considers both men and women artists as active performers of multivalent identities

The Artist's Mother ,2009 Over the last six hundred years artists have found ways to work their mothers into their most famous paintings This full colour book offers paintings from some of the greatest painters in history It describes the complex and heartfelt relationship between these artists and the women who nurtured them Mary Cassatt, Printmaker Mary Cassatt,2001 Critical Geographies of Cycling Glen Norcliffe,2016-03-09 Examining cycling from a range of geographical perspectives this book uses historical and contemporary case studies to look at the history politics economy and culture of cycling Pursuing a post structural position in viewing understandings of the bicycle as contingent upon time and place author Glen Norcliffe argues for the need for widespread processes such as gendered use of the bicycle the Cyclists Rights Movement and the globalization of bicycle making to be interpreted in different ways in different settings With this in mind the essays in the book are divided into two sections relational aspects are examined as Spaces of Cycling which treats technological development innovation and the location of production and trade of cycles while Places of Cycling interprets specific sites of consumption the streets of the city in the cycling clubs among men and women and at the trade show Written from a geographer s integrative perspective to offer a broad understanding of cycling this book will also be of interest to other social scientists in urban studies cultural studies technology and society sociology history and environmental planning
