Developing Countries Patrick Schroeder, Kartika Anggraeni, Silvia Sartori, Uwe Weber, 2016-12-12 In the emerging narrative of sustainable development in Asia the essential challenge is to reduce the use of natural resources and environmental degradation alongside the increasing demand for goods and services To achieve this Sustainable Consumption and Production SCP one of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs adopted by the United Nations in 2015 aims at reconciling the three goals of minimising the extraction of natural resources from the environment limiting waste and emissions over the life cycle of goods and services and improving human development and wellbeing Sustainable Asia Supporting the Transition to Sustainable Consumption and Production in Asian Developing Countries provides an overview and analysis of the current status of SCP in Asian developing countries The book focuses on projects supported by the EU funded SWITCH Asia Programme a regional development cooperation programme promoting the adoption of SCP practices among small and medium sized enterprises SMEs and consumer groups in Asia since 2007 For readers looking for a comprehensive introduction to the topic of SCP together with a detailed analysis of the current developmental situation in various Asian developing countries and key sectors such as manufacturing tourism renewable energy and agriculture this book is an invaluable tool The book examines in detail the SCP approaches and innovative solutions demonstrated by the SWITCH Asia supported projects in Asia and thus serves as a reference for practitioners researchers and policymakers alike

Tourism, Conflict and Contested Heritage in Former Yugoslavia Josef Ploner, Patrick Naef, 2018-12-07 Described as cultural crossroads or mosaic powder keg border bridge or Europe's Other the region comprising former Yugoslavia has over time conjured up ambiguous imaginaries associated with political unrest national contest and ethnic divide Since the disintegration of Yugoslavia and the succeeding Yugoslav Wars of the 1990s both the geography and historiography of the region have been thoroughly reconfigured which has impacted the ways in which heritage is interpreted and used at local regional and national levels In this ongoing process of heritage re interpretation tourism is more than just a dark spectacle While it can be seen as a catalyst through which to filter or normalise dissonant memories it can also be utilised as a powerful ideological tool which enables the narrative reinvention of contested traditions and divisive myths Drawing on case studies from Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia and Kosovo this volume generates new and fascinating insights into the contested terrain of heritage tourism in former Yugoslavia It explores the manifold ways in which tourism stakeholders engage with capitalise on and make sense of sites and events marked by conflict and trauma Unlike many previous studies this book features contributions by emerging early career scholars emanating from within the region and working across disciplines such as anthropology art history geography and political studies This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Tourism and Cultural Change

Thanatourism and Cinematic Representations of Risk Rodanthi Tzanelli, 2016-04-14 In today's world the need to eliminate natural and human made disasters has been at the forefront of national and international socio political agendas The management of risks such as terrorism labour strikes protests and environmental degradation has become pivotal for countries that depend on their economy's tourist sector Indeed there is fear that the end of tourism might be nigh due to inadequate institutional foresight Yet in designing relevant policies to tackle this arts such as that of filmmaking have yet to receive due consideration This book adopts an unorthodox approach to debates about the end of tourism Through twenty first century cinematic narratives of symbolically interconnected risks it considers how art envisages the future of humanity's well-being. These risks include migration as an infectious disease, alien incursions as racialized labour mobilities, cyborg rebellion as the fear of post-colonial otherness and zombie anthropophagy as the replacement of rooted identities by nomadic lifestyles. Such filmic scenarios articulate the futuristic survival of community as the triumph of the technological human over otherness and provide a means to debate societal risks that weave identity politics into unequal mobilities. This book will appeal to researchers and students interested in mobilities theory, tourism and travel theory, film studies and aesthetics, globalisation studies, race, labour and migration.

Framing the Penal Colony Sophie Fuggle, Charles Forsdick, Katharina Massing, 2023-02-20. This book examines the representation of penal colonies both historically and in contemporary culture across an array of media. Exploring a range of geographies and historical instances of the penal colony, it seeks to identify how the penal colony as a widespread phenomenon is as much imagined and creatively instrumentalized as it pertains to real sites and populations. It concentrates on the range of media produced in and around penal colonies both during their operation and following their closures. This approach emphasizes the role of cross-disciplinary methods and approaches to examining the history and legacy of convict transportation, prison islands and other sites of exile. It develops a range of methodological tools for engaging with cultures and representations of incarceration, detention and transportation. The chapters draw on media discourse analysis, critical cartography, museum and heritage studies, ethnography, architectural history, visual culture, including film and comics studies and gaming studies. It aims to disrupt the idea of adopting linear histories or isolated geographies in order to understand the impact and legacy of penal colonies. The overall claim made by the collection is that understanding the cultural production associated with this global phenomenon is a necessary part of a wider examination of carceral imaginaries or penal spectatorship.

Revolutionary Cuba Brown 2009. Past, present and future. It brings together historiography, criminology, media and cultural studies.

Revolutionary Cuba Luis Martínez-Fernández, 2014-09-16. This is the first book in more than three decades to offer a complete and chronological history of revolutionary Cuba, including the years of rebellion that led to the revolution. Beginning with Batista's coup in 1952, which catalyzed the rebels and bringing the reader to the present day transformations initiated by Raúl Castro Luis Martínez Fernández provides a balanced interpretive synthesis of the major topics of contemporary Cuban history Expertly weaving the myriad historic social and political forces that shaped the island nation during this period Martínez Fernández examines the circumstances that allowed the revolution to consolidate in the early 1960s the Soviet influence throughout the latter part of the Cold War and the struggle to survive the catastrophic Special Period of the 1990s after the collapse of the U S S R He tackles the island's chronic dependence on sugar production which started with the plantations centuries ago and continues to shape culture and society He analyzes the revolutionary pendulum that continues to swing between idealism and pragmatism focusing on its effects on the everyday lives of the Cuban people and bucking established trends in Cuban scholarship Martínez Fernández systematically integrates the Cuban diaspora into the larger discourse of the revolution Concise well written and accessible this book is an indispensable survey of the history and themes of the socialist revolution that forever changed Cuba and the world
