Development In Modern Africa Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin Falola, 2019-10-08 Development in Modern Africa Past and Present Perspectives contributes to our understanding of Africa's experiences with the development process It does so by adopting a historical and contemporary analysis of this experience The book is set within the context of critiques on development in Africa that have yielded two general categories of analysis skepticism and pessimism While not overlooking the shortcomings of development the themes in the book express an optimistic view of Africa's development experiences highlighting elements that can be tapped into to enhance the condition of African populations and their states By using case studies from precolonial colonial and postcolonial Africa contributors to the volume demonstrate that human instincts to improve material social and spiritual worlds are universal They are not limited to the Western world which the term and process of development are typically associated with Before and after contact with the West Africans have actively created institutions and values that they have actively employed to improve individual and community lives This innovative spirit has motivated Africans to integrate or experiment with new values and structures challenges and solutions to human welfare that resulted from contact with colonialism and the postcolonial global community The book will be of interest to academics in the fields of history African studies and regional studies

An

Emerging Approach for Education and Care Susana Castro,Olympia Palikara,2017-08-07 An Emerging Approach for Education and Care provides a synthesis of the extensive research that has been conducted worldwide about the International Classification of Functioning Disability and Health for Children and Youth in education and care The main purpose of the ICF is to provide a classification of functioning for adults and children with difficulties considering their everyday lives all the activities they perform and the environments they are embedded in in addition to their health condition which has been the traditional focus of Special Education provision in many countries Each chapter presents an evidence based study describing how the ICF has been used to improve the provision of services for children and young people with Special Educational Needs around the world Moreover each chapter is written by an expert on the ICF from a different country thus providing an overview of how the ICF can be applied in international educational contexts with different educational and health systems and cultural backgrounds This synthesis of world leading research focuses on the ICF as a framework to approach assessment intervention and classification for children and young people with SEN whilst also providing practical examples of how it can be implemented An Emerging Approach for Education and Care will be essential reading for academics researchers and practitioners working on Special Educational Needs provision and rehabilitation It should also be of great interest to those involved in the study of early childhood education and for postgraduate students aspiring to work in these settings

Historical trauma and memory Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela,Eric Ndushabandi,Kopano Ratele,2021-12-06 How wounds from a previous generation may weigh on children and grandchildren contain much of interest Yet if we unpack the ghostly the eerie and the spectral in transgenerational hauntings if we allow for the suffering or the disturbed to forge social links such contacts may enable breaking into reconnections and afterlives One only needs to think of the near epidemic of rape in South Africa to sense violent hypermasculinity erupting as madness mediated by a history of brutal racialised reduction But it is also important to move beyond the brutalities and madness to consider the individual and collective refigurations surfacing out of layers of catastrophe Nancy Rose Hunt Conference Keynote Address Beyond Trauma Notes on a Word a Frame and a Diagnostic Category Historical Trauma and Memory Living with the Haunting Power of the Past is based on essays presented at a conference with the same name which was held in Kigali Rwanda in April 2019 The book gives readers front row seats as an interdisciplinary group of scholars from law psychology history the arts anthropology theology and philosophy address the complex matrix of the emotional legacies of historical trauma cultural legacies people interacting with their social and political environment and the interplay of these factors in different post conflict societies

Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald,2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past

One Tragic Night Mandy Wiener, Barry Bateman, 2014-10-03 An authoritative account of the crimes of Oscar Pistorius the beloved Paralympic superstar who shot his girlfriend in cold blood from the night of the killings to the controversial verdict At 08 03 on the morning of Valentine s Day 2013 news broke that Oscar Pistorius the Paralympic superstar known as the Blade Runner had shot and killed his girlfriend at his luxury home in Pretoria South Africa Within minutes the story reverberated around the world as banners flashed across television screens broadcasting global news networks At first glance it appeared to be a heart wrenching tragic accident The athlete had mistaken beautiful Reeva Steenkamp for an intruder But as the morning unfolded a second version of events began to reveal itself indicating that the country s celebrated icon its Golden Boy may have murdered his model girlfriend in a fit of rage In this vivid and insightful narrative South African journalists Mandy Wiener and Barry Bateman reveal the true story of Oscar Pistorius and Reeva Steenkamp from that horrific night to the announcement of the shocking verdict Drawing on evidence from the trial as well as on the ground interviews with family and friends of Oscar and Reeva this is the authoritative account of one of the most high profile trials of the 21st century

Case Studies of Famous Trials and Gorden, Caroline, Birkbeck, Christopher, 2022-04-11 From the trials of Oscar Pistorius to O J Simpson and Michael Jackson this innovative book provides a critical review of 11 high profile criminal cases These case studies examine how guilt and innocence are constructed in the courts and in wider society using the themes of evidence and narratives credibility rhetoric and oratory in the court room social status vulnerability and false confessions diminished responsibility and the media and social judgments Written for criminology sociology law and criminal justice students the book includes video links to selected documentaries and interviews web links to important case materials such as trial transcripts exercises for students based on the cases that are covered The book delivers an accessible examination of the criminological sociological psychological and legal processes underpinning the outcome of criminal cases and their representation in the media and wider society

Suid-Afrikaanse Hofverslae , 2014 The Post-Election Violence in Kenya Sosteness Francis Materu, 2014-12-04 Since the historic Nuremberg Trial of 1945 an international customary law principle has developed that commission of a core crime under international law war crimes genocide crimes against humanity and aggression should not go unpunished History shows that when in Africa such violations occurred especially as a result of election disputes national and regional actors including the African Union resorted to political rather than legal responses However when crimes against humanity were alleged to have been committed in Kenya during the 2007 2008 post election violence a promising road map for criminal accountability was agreed upon alongside a political solution In the spirit of this road map the author analyzes the post election violence in Kenya from a legal point of view He extensively examines legal options for domestic criminal accountability and discusses both retributive prosecutions and restorative justice mainly truth commission mechanisms being the main legal responses to the gross violations of human rights Furthermore he thoroughly investigates the Kenya situation before the ICC and the legal cum political responses to the ICC intervention in Kenya Practitioners and academics in the field of international criminal law and related disciplines as well as political sciences and legal history will find in this book highly relevant information about alternative legal approaches of the fight against and punishment of crimes against humanity as defined under the ICC Statute
