Gazankulu (South Africa). Department of Education, 1992      Teacher Preparation in South Africa Linda Chisholm, 2019-10-09 The book will focus on the emergence of a racially divided system of teacher preparation and its dismantling post apartheid It will explore the policies and politics of discrepant pathways to teacher preparation within the context of international and comparative trends      Implementing Education Policies Jonathan D. Jansen, Yusuf Sayed, 2001 For the first time in South Africa a critical dialogue has been recorded between government policy makers and academic researchers on the subject of education policy and practice Implementing education policies attends to problems politics and possibilities of implementing the policy goals of the first post apartheid government established in 1994 The value of this book lies in several insider accounts of the policy process told through the voices of the legislators politicians and bureaucrats concerned with steering national value commitments through the education system Running parallel to these practitioner accounts lie a number of critical analyses of the technical capabilities and political designs that explain the trajectory of education reform in the 1990s The dialogue brings together in a developing country context different experiences and analyses of one of the most intractable problems facing all national education systems the persistent gap between policy ideals and practical realities This volume is essential reading for all academics and students of education at conceptions of humanity and development that dominated the world stage after World War II Embroided analyzes the manner in which international religious organizations dealt with the formulation and implementation of apartheid The book studies this through an examination of the Swiss Mission in South Africa SMSA an institution that acted in South Africa Switzerland and the international ecumenical community As a socially embedded institution the SMSA mirrored divisions present within Swiss and South African societies on the issue of apartheid Embroided brings out the complex even turbulent nature of a missionary society at once political intermediary spiritual guide and non government organisation Caught between different communities and discrete continents missionaries discussed and debated their role in South Africa and attempted however fitfully to respond to the changes that swept through the country particularly as opposing nationalisms fought to seize hold of
