Love Afia Khatun,2018-08-12 A true account of the trials and tribulations a young couple face in the journey to love

Unwritten Hayley Howell,2011-07 What you hold in your hands is not a Happily Ever After love story nor is it a romance novel But rather it is a real love story One with ups and downs twists and turns good times and bad This story will remind you to show your appreciation for the ones you love every day because tomorrow may be too late I met the love of my life My lifelong dream of being a wife and mother seemed to be coming true before my eyes Then everything changed I hope this story will serve as a testament to these truths love God and those around you everyday forgive the little things and focus on what's important Life hardly ever travels on the perfect path you lay out but the one thing that is constant and unbending is love Love Endureth Forever Umar Aliyu,2021-06-20 This book is special and different from what is usual because the Genre and the entire composition of this book fall under nonfiction a communication in which descriptions and events are real and factual This is a true life story about Adam a High School Director and Hannah a University student Adam and Hannah fell in love and the result of their love made them went from complexity of rejection to trials and tribulations and from denial and anguish to sadness and happiness It all started on Thursday 20 August 1998 around 4 00 pm in the evening Adam saw Hannah coming out of Das University and as soon as he saw her he felt exhilarated trembling a racing heart with accelerated breathing and feeling of love that ran into his body and mood that made him start feeling like a drug addict She was a Christian Yoruba by tribe and he was a Muslim and Fulani by tribe They eventually fell in love and deeply in love but the problem started because they were of different ethics tribe and faith Getting married to a person from a different tribe or religion in the environment they live may require very deep thinking planning and sacrifice Therefore having falling into this kind of relationship with different set of values and beliefs can be very difficult to manage most especially in the environment they live Her father was a Yoruba and Christian while his father was the opposite a Fulani and a Muslim Her senior brother was a pastor her siblings and entire family were Yoruba and Christians while on the other hand his entire family were Muslims The question is are they going to be compatible Her father died without accepting them and his mother died looking straight into her eyes Her family took her away out of anger without notice to another town far away over eight hundred and fifty kilometres without prejudice and placed her under lock and key with the damn intention of getting her married to another person she despises and at all cost Tremendously full of rage and love Adam planned and took her away on the day she was supposed to get married to another person Adam married Hannah 1 in the court 2 according to religious rights and 3 traditionally all in a bid to making her his After getting married she got pregnant and had a child Her siblings took her and the child away from him by force to an unknown destination He had a drastic accident in his car on his way trying to find her and his child Huh Can they be together at all It is a true life story full of surprises fun pity happiness sorrow hate deceit joy and overall love Their love found way for both of them to be together forever and the impact of their love fuelled the love that made them live far beyond the moments of their life Very few have the strength passion and desire required to make their love last to eternity but to Adam and Hannah their love would remain a dream come true forever and ever If you have found this book useful please consider leaving a short review on Amazon
