Global Mission Handbook: A Guide for Crosscultural Service (Large Print 16pt) Bill Taylor,Steve Hoke,2012-11-28 Veteran mission professionals Steve Hoke and Bill Taylor offer a practical guide for preparing for intercultural missions They provide resources for personal spiritual preparation as well as crosscultural skills and hands on missionary training

China's Ambassadors of Christ to the Nations Tabor Laughlin,2020-03-24 Maybe you are familiar with the growth in recent decades of majority world missionaries being sent all over the world from non Western countries i e countries in Asia Africa Latin America Middle East This book focuses on missionaries sent from one non Western country analyzing the experiences of Chinese missionaries on the mission field The missionaries interviewed were sent from house churches in mainland China have served overseas for at least two years and are ministering cross culturally to non Chinese on the mission field The first research question relates to Chinese missionaries successes and difficulties in cross culturally building relationships with locals learning the local language and adjusting to the local culture The second research question analyzes factors that have contributed to the Chinese missionaries remaining on the mission field This included how pre field preparation and on field support contributed to their retention Also analyzed were other challenges and needs the missionaries had on the field The interviewees were serving in countries in Central Asia Southeast Asia and the Middle East

Reach and Teach: Steve Curtis,2016-08-30 Many churches are involved in short term mission trips Most of these trips however are focused on economic or social development projects coupled with relational evangelism Not many are focused on discipleship or more specifically training indigenous pastors in the essential doctrines of the faith so that they can in turn disciple their church In fact reproducible models for in depth theological education during short term missions are rare As a missionary presently ministering in a number of underdeveloped nations Steve Curtis has witnessed the need for and potential benefit of such models The reality is that there are countless pastors throughout the majority world who have had little to no formal training in Bible or doctrine This book suggests a practical way that churches can use their short term missions program together with their adult discipleship program to help meet this critical global need

Introducing Christian Mission Today Michael W. Goheen,2014-07-14 Michael Goheen gives us a full scale introduction to mission studies today in its biblical theological and historical dimensions Goheen covers the full horizon of major issues in mission including its global urban and holistic contexts This text shows how the missional church encounters the pluralism of Western culture and global religions

Transforming Missiology Fohle Lygunda li-M,2018-02-28 Dr Fohle Lygunda li M provides a thorough analysis of missiological teaching in theological institutions in Africa with special reference to ten Christian universities in the Democratic Republic of the Congo His detailed examination of current teaching of mission theory and practice builds a solid foundation for the articulation of a new paradigm of missiological education In this book Dr Lygunda presents the case for a transformed approach to raising up seminarians who are equipped to lead indigenous missional churches that will fulfil the Great Commission in their own communities and beyond their national borders Spiritual Equipping for Mission Ryan Shaw,2014-09-05 Spiritual formation and discipleship are at the core of effective and fruitful mission Mission professional Ryan Shaw unpacks ten fundamental spiritual keys we need to practice to succeed and thrive spiritually in preparation of becoming God s message bearers in the world Noticing God Richard Peace,2012-05-25 Where is God How do we encounter God How do we know it is God we encounter and not some figment of our imagination Is it possible to know God in some sort of relational way Richard Peace believes it is But it requires a certain level of awareness a certain discipline of the heart Peace calls it the spiritual discipline of noticing God In this book he unpacks what it means to make a conscious practice noticing God in daily life He explores the various ways people experience and recognize God s presence including mystical encounters ordinary daily life within our hearts through other people through Scripture nature and the church Throughout he returns to the question of discernment helping you understand how you can know that it is indeed God you are meeting in each of these places not just some fanciful figment of the imagination God is deeply present in our world and you can actually encounter him Here s how Through God's Eyes (Revised Edition) Patrick O. Cate,2012-06-27 This newly revised classic workbook features updated resources to help readers better understand the needs and growth of missions today It also includes revised questions and suggestions for further reading for deeper reflection and understanding Through God s Eyes is an invaluable resource for those seeking to investigate God s passion for His world This study guide is designed to bring us into the Word personally help us discover inductively what God is saying and gain a better sense of His direction for our lives Through God s Eyes can function as a personal Bible study or as part of an introduction to missions or a biblical theology of missions course for a small group Sunday school college or seminary class Introducing World Missions (Encountering Mission) A. Scott Moreau,Gary R. Corwin,Gary B. McGee,2015-06-09 This bestselling textbook by leading missionary scholars offers an engaging introduction to the work of missions in the contemporary world It provides a broad overview of the biblical theological and historical foundations for missions It also considers personal and practical issues involved in becoming a missionary the process of getting to the mission field and contemporary challenges a mission worker must face Sidebars charts maps and numerous case studies are included This new edition has been updated and revised throughout and features a full color interior Additional resources for professors and students are available online through Baker Academic s Textbook eSources Ask a Missionary John McVay,2012-01-04 Ask a Missionary is a practical comprehensive resource to help you determine if a missions related ministry would be a place for you John Chrysostom and African Charismatic Theology in Conversation Samantha L. Miller,2021-03-18 This book puts John Chrysostom in conversation with deliverance ministries and the prosperity gospel in modern African charismatic Christianity Samantha Miller argues that Chrysostom had a cosmology not unlike that present in the charismatic Christianity of the global south where the world is populated by spirits able to affect the material world Additionally Chrysostom had plenty to say about suffering demons and prosperity Through this conversation issues of personal moral responsibility and salvation rise to the surface and it is through these issues that modern Western and African Christians theologians pastors missionaries and laity can perhaps have a conversation that gets past the question of a spirit inhabited world and talk together about the saving work of Christ for the benefit of all the church

Frontline Women Marguerite G. Kraft, 2012-06-27 Frontline Women is a collection of writings on women's issues from those who have had mission field experience Each author has special interest and expertise in the area in which he or she has written In the past we have failed to understand the significance of gender in mission work Though women have historically been the majority in mission service they have not been allowed much say in policies or strategizing This book deals with gender differences in many areas of life and how that affects service to God in mission work Women's God given gifting is meant to complement that of men and needs to be recognized appreciated and made use of in the day by day functioning of missions In some mission agencies changes are being made in regard to women's role and care In this edition the authors have updated and added new information from their research and experience

Pipeline David J. Wilson, Lorane Wilson, 2018-05-01 What would it look like if your church really took the last words of Jesus seriously The Great Commission was not just a suggestion by our Lord but an imperative mandate given to his followers Missionary sending agencies are deploying workers to the field but many of them come from disengaged churches that are not producing well equipped disciples We need a fully integrated global supply chain a pipeline that has disciples as the precious commodity as well as an effective infrastructure to distribute and replicate them around the globe Pipeline seeks to re engage the church in mobilizing the next generation of workers for the harvest This is a collaboration of forty different authors from churches agencies and cross cultural servants As people in distant places wait for a messenger of hope and salvation will your church venture into the pipeline

Multiply David Nelson, 2024-05-31 God has not only created us with the ability to multiply through having children he has also given us the power to multiply disciples who multiply disciples through the preaching of the gospel in the power of the Holy Spirit In Genesis and Acts we read how God enabled man to multiply biologically and spiritually We read how the number of disciples greatly increased and multiplied during the era of the early church In his book Dr David Nelson explains eight principles for building a ministry of multiplication These biblically based principles will empower you to see a solid ministry that will grow into a ministry that multiplies disciple makers

Sorrow and Blood William D. Taylor, Antonia van der Meer, Reg Reimer, 2012-07-04 On behalf of the WEA Mission Commission William Carey Library is pleased to launch a landmark anthology and resource This is a new publication in the Globalization of Mission series Sorrow Blood Christian Mission in Contexts of Suffering Persecution and Martyrdom The editorial team of William Taylor USA Tonica van der Meer Brazil and Reg Reimer Canada worked over four years to compile this unique resource anthology This book is the product of the Mission Commission s global missiology task force and a worldwide team of committed colleagues and writers Some 62 writers from 23 nations have collaborated to generate this unique global resource and anthology Ajith Fernando of Sri Lanka and Christopher Wright of the UK each wrote prefaces to the book This latest WEA volume has the potential of profoundly shaping our approach to mission in today s challenging and increasingly dangerous world

Leading from Below Bill Taylor, 2025-03-18 Follow the downward path of the cross What does it mean to lead from a position of humility calling and service In Leading from Below Bill Taylor shares insights learned from six decades of cross cultural ministry This narrative theology combines elements of autobiography theological insight and practical guidance where leadership lessons emerge more from the crucible of life rather than books podcasts or seminars Taylor s honest stories reflect vulnerability but also the strength to live into the sometimes painful often inscrutable promises of God He reflects on his Third Culture Kid life grapples with the slippery slogans of missions encounters the Holy Spirit in new dimensions of presence and power and seeks to make sense of the many mistakes he made He concludes with a series of reflections on leadership and finishing well Leading from Below is both inspirational and instructive It is designed to encourage and equip leaders with a framework of leading with integrity and a Christ centered perspective

God's Absence and the Charismatic Presence Roy D. Kindelberger, 2017-05-17 The author s theological inquiry is intended to raise questions of interpretation within the camp of openness theology and to direct a discussion on the implications of this movement for the charismatic Pentecostal community Open theism or openness theology affirms that the universe is open the future is not settled God is essentially relational love and the risks of love and the threats against it are real The author digs deep into this area of doctrine in order to question how far openness theology is willing to go Is it only the future that is open to God or are there perhaps unknown aspects to the past and present as well What does God know about sin and when does he know it Is it possible for God to be totally absent from a person s life or even from an entire nation If God can be absent can he also be exceptionally present in the lives of believers What would the divine presence and the charismata spiritual ministries look like in an open universe

Reflecting God's Glory Together A. Scott Moreau, Beth Snodderly, 2011-09-15 The true story of mission has been deeper wider and far more diverse than many Christians in countries with long histories of church presence have realized The authors in Reflecting God s Glory Together Diversity in Evangelical Mission drive that point home in a variety of ways From Filipino and Ghanaian missionary work in North American cities to Canadian work among the Chinese diaspora to African American work in Zimbabwe the authors help us begin to grasp just how many ways evangelicals in mission are truly going from and coming to everywhere as they follow Christ s mandate to reach the nations Diverse voices utilizing diverse strategies pursuing a common call these result in a mosaic whose larger pattern glorifies the God who came to live among us and who continues to send us out in the pattern God so clearly established As editors Beth and Scott invite you to explore the stories embedded in that marvelous mosaic that we have been privileged to collect for this volume

Sharing in God's Presence Roy D. Kindelberger, 2018-10-05 Sharing in God's Presence means far more than getting saved and experiencing God's blessing in our lives. As believers, his presence becomes a very personal part of who we are and what we do. God actually shares himself with us. The language that we use often fails to capture the depths of God's nature penetrating ours, the fullness of his Spirit permeating our hearts and the innermost infusion of his presence in our lives. But the truth couldn't be more intimate. The person who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him. 1 Corinthians 6:17. This book is an invitation to share in God's presence by allowing God to share himself with you. God wants everyone to share in his embrace. As we accept our responsibility for prayer ministry and even revival, we share in the very precious dynamic of give and response that's involved in an intimate walk with Jesus Christ. For a general readership, this book is a reworking of material from the second half of the author's academic work, God's Absence and the Charismatic Presence.
