Grade10 Geography Paper1 Test November 2014:

The End of Public Schools David W. Hursh, 2015-10-16 The End of Public Schools analyzes the effect of foundations corporations and non governmental organizations on the rise of neoliberal principles in public education By first contextualizing the privatization of education within the context of a larger educational crisis and with particular emphasis on the Gates Foundation and influential state and national politicians it describes how specific policies that limit public control are advanced across all levels Informed by a thorough understanding of issues such as standardized testing teacher tenure and charter schools David Hursh provides a political and pedagogical critique of the current school reform movement as well details about the increasing resistance efforts on the part of parents teachers and the general public The Natural World as a Resource for Learning and Development: From Schoolyards to Wilderness Ming Kuo, Cathy Jordan, 2019-11-04 Child Development at the Intersection of Race and SES, 2019-07-02 Child Development at the intersection of Race and SES Volume 57 in the Advances in Child Development and Behavior series presents theoretical and empirical scholarship illuminating how race ethnicity and socioeconomic status intersect to shape children s development and developmental contexts Important chapters in this new release include the Implications of Intersecting Socioeconomic and Racial Identities for Academic Achievement and Well being The home environment of low income Latino children Challenges and opportunities Profiles of race ethnicity and socioeconomic status Implications for ethnic racial identity discrimination and sleep Youths sociopolitical perceptions and mental health Intersections between race class and gender and much more Rather than focusing on the additive effects of race ethnicity and SES which is typical and a limitation in the developmental literature the scholarship in this book considers how the factors and processes shaping the development of children of color can differ markedly across the socioeconomic continuum This collection illustrates how applying an intersectional lens to developmental science can yield unique insights into the challenges confronting and assets buoying both minority and majority children s healthy development The Palgrave Handbook of Race and Ethnic Inequalities in Education Peter A.J. Stevens, A. Gary Dworkin, 2019-07-05 This authoritative state of the art reference work builds on its first edition to provide a cutting edge systematic review of the relationship between race ethnicity and educational inequality Studying 25 different national contexts drawn from every inhabited continent on earth and building upon material from the earlier edition the work analyses educational policies practices and research on minority students immigrants and refugees The editors and contributors explore principal research traditions from countries as diverse as Argentina China Norway and South Africa examining the factors promoting social cohesion as well as considerations regarding the use of international test score data Seamlessly integrating findings of national reviews the editors and contributors analyse how national contexts of race ethnic relations shape the character and content of educational inequalities and deftly map out new directions for future research in the area Global in its perspective and definitive in content this one stop volume will be an indispensable
