Mathematics (Education) in the Information Age Stacy A. Costa,Marcel Danesi,Dragana Martinovic,2020-12-10 This book brings together ideas from experts in cognitive science mathematics and mathematics education to discuss these issues and to present research on how mathematics and its learning and teaching are evolving in the Information Age Given the ever broadening trends in Artificial Intelligence and the processing of information generally the aim is to assess their implications for how math is evolving and how math should now be taught to a generation that has been reared in the Information Age It will also look at the ever spreading assumption that human intelligence may not be unique an idea that dovetails with current philosophies of mind such as posthumanism and transhumanism The role of technology in human evolution has become critical in the contemporary world Therefore a subgoal of this book is to illuminate how humans now use their sophisticated technologies to chart cognitive and social progress Given the interdisciplinary nature of the chapters this will be of interest to all kinds of readers from mathematicians themselves working increasingly with computer scientists to cognitive scientists who carry out research on mathematics cognition and teachers of mathematics in a classroom

Social and Ethical Issues of Global Pandemics Masake Pilisano Harris,Richard Obinna Iroanya,2023-11-02 The COVID 19 pandemic exposed the weaknesses inherent in the social infrastructure of African states especially healthcare and social security systems African states were characterized by a high level of unpreparedness with scientific and technological insufficiency to address the pandemic emergency This in turn worsened the impact of COVID 19 on all fronts thus many African states experienced issues with high mortality rate rampant job losses and arbitrary and erratic state responses Social and Ethical Issues of Global Pandemics A Southern African Perspective edited by Masake Pilisano Harris and Richard Obinna Iroanya argues that pandemics deepen inequality margins with grave social legal and ethical consequences in Southern Africa and beyond Through empirical and theoretical research Harris and Iroanya analyze the regulations that were passed during COVID 19 and evaluate the impact and legality of these regulations The contributors provide information that will help authorities and society appreciate the extent of the effects of the pandemic and its control measures on people s ways of life in the post COVID era and beyond Man Disconnected Philip Zimbardo,Nikita D. Coulombe,2015-05-07 Zimbardo has put his finger on a great challenge of the modern era The Sunday Times Masculinity is in meltdown Young men are failing as never before academically socially and sexually But why And what needs to be done Internationally acclaimed psychologist Philip Zimbardo and research partner Nikita Coulombe show how symptoms include excessive gaming and porn use apathy and drug abuse They argue that digital technologies create alternative worlds that many boys find less demanding and more rewarding than real life yet which are ultimately harmful There is hope Man Disconnected reveals where the solutions are to be found and what action we can take Controversial provocative and insightful this book is an alarm call ignored at our peril
