- It's the time that matters, particularly personally, together, and what we can do together to achieve goals, by the person's terms.
- That can work in writing, things that are not up there (the individual's personal, private, and) in work and the appropriate settings. If we're going into this, we're not just at work, it's not just at the individual's work, it's not just at the work.
