Child and Adolescent Development for Educators Christi Crosby Bergin, David Allen Bergin, Sue Walker, Graham Daniel, Angela Fenton, Pearl Subban, 2018-09-01

Child and Adolescent Development for Educators covers development from early childhood through high school. This text provides authentic research-based strategies and guidelines for the classroom, helping future teachers to create an environment that promotes optimal development in children. The authors apply child development concepts to topics of high interest and relevance to teachers, including classroom discipline, constructivism, social-emotional development, and many others. Child and Adolescent Development for Educators combines the core theory with practical implications for educational contexts and shows how child development links to the Australian Professional Standards for Graduate Teachers. Case studies and real-world vignettes further bridge the distance between research and the classroom. Along with strong coverage of key local research, such as the Longitudinal Study of Australian Children and Longitudinal Study of Indigenous children.

Doing your Research Project in Sport Chris Lynch, 2010-05-20 The research project is a major component of most higher education sport courses. While undertaking a research project can be an exciting and rewarding experience, it can all too easily lead to stress and disappointment. Mistakes made early in the process, in the design of experiments, for example, can lead to frustration later on. This accessible book guides students through the process from the initial stages of research, identifying problems and designing questions right through to the presentation of their findings
