Making Creative Schedules Work in Middle and High Schools Elliot Y. Merenbloom, Barbara A. Kalina, 2006-12-28 This practical user friendly resource provides a step by step process for restructuring blocks of learning time to improve student teacher relationships and promote more positive learning experiences      Resources in Education ,1994      It's About Time [Secondary] Mike Mattos, Austin Buffum, 2014-10-10 Carve out effective intervention and extension time at all three tiers of the RTI pyramid Explore more than a dozen examples of creative and flexible scheduling and gain access to tools you can use immediately to overcome implementation challenges These books are full of examples from real schools that have achieved these results without using additional resources or extending the school day      The SAGE Guide to Educational Leadership and Management Fenwick W. English, 2015-01-29 The SAGE Guide to Educational Leadership and Management allows readers to gain knowledge of educational management in practice while providing insights into challenges facing educational leaders and the strategies skills and techniques needed to enhance administrative performance This guide emphasizes the important skills that effective leaders must develop and refine including communication developing teams coaching and motivating and managing time and priorities While being brief simply written and a highly practical overview for individuals who are new to this field this reference guide will combine practice and research indicate current issues and directions and choices that need to be made Features Benefits 30 brief signed chapters are organized in 10 thematic parts in one volume available in a choice of electronic or print formats designed to enable quick access to basic information Selective boxes enrich and support the narrative chapters with case examples of effective leadership in action Chapters conclude with bibliographic endnotes and references to further readings to guide students to more in depth presentations in other published sources Back matter includes an annotated listing of organizations associations and journals focused on educational leadership and administration and a detailed index This reference guide will serve as a vital source of knowledge to any students pursuing an education degree as well as for individuals interested in the subject matter that do not have a strong foundation of the topic      Deep Change Gerald Ponder, David Strahan, 2005-11-01 This book presents cases of schools Part One and programs at the district level and beyond Part Two in which reform while driven by high stakes accountability became larger and deeper through data driven dialogue culture change organizational learning and other elements of high performing cultures Commentaries on cross case patterns by Ann Lieberman and Michael Fullan and a chapter on now what first steps provide implications for initiating deep change that results in improved student learning outcomes even in challenging activity settings      Schoolwide Action Research for Professional Learning Communities Karl H. Clauset, Dale W. Lick, Carlene U. Murphy, 2008-05-15 Discover how Whole Faculty Study Groups WFSGs use collaborative action research to involve an entire professional learning community in improving staff and school performance

Professional School Counseling Rosemary Thompson, Dr. Rosemary Thompson, 2012-04-27 Today's children and adolescents are constantly facing new and unique challenges and school counselors must respond to this by expanding their role and function within the schools This revised and expanded edition of Thompson's important text explores these issues as well as the necessary steps school counselors need to take in order to adapt and effectively deal with them Thompson advocates for the need for standards based school counseling outlining the framework and benefits of the ASCA National Model and comprehensive guidance and counseling programs She addresses the newest research in implementing evidence based practices the mental health issues that may be faced by children and adolescents consulting with teachers parents administrators and the community and crisis intervention and management New to this edition are chapters that focus on minority and disenfranchised students and emphasize the need for school counselors to be able to advocate coordinate and collaborate on services for these students and their families This is an essential resource for every school counselor in a time when the profession is becoming increasingly important

Teaching/writing in the Late Age of Print Jeffrey R. Galin, Carol Peterson Haviland, J. Paul Johnson, 2003 Although several anthologies have collected articles on issues confronting composition studies no other text looks at student writing as does Teaching Writing in the Late Age of Print No other volume has asked compositionists to use student writing to reflect on their teaching practices No other volume has provided the rich breadth of response that reflects the current state of composition in the United States And no other volume has defined its primary task as portraying the diversity of the field through teaching practices as represented in student writing Most important of all no other volume has provided all course materials and supplemental documentation online as an integral part of such a project There is a keyword reference table that allows readers to read chapters based on key terms in the field like collaboration Each chapter begins with an abstract for easy reference The companion website for this book includes a searchable database of all the chapter abstracts assignments excerpts from all contributions extended course materials that help contextualize the printed chapters and an online forum for teachers and researchers to meet and discuss their research interests

Getting to Excellence James A Johnson, Jr PhD, 2013-03 This book is about a journey with the Center for Strategic Alliances in Education for School and District Improvement with stakeholders in a school targeted for school improvement The first chapter puts into context the notion of school its purpose and the incumbent variables of values attitudes organizational and leadership behaviors and instructional practices Throughout the book the authors look at three contextual boundaries 1 historical 2 the lens of former students and their perceptions of the presence or absence of those variables and 3 a comparison of labeled schools and the views and perceptions of stakeholders with regard to quality equity and adequacy This is a compelling journey which utilizes quantitative and qualitative data to take a critical look at the processes involved and the strategies used in America's journey in the quest for excellence The authors story is one of the pursuits of innovation reinvention equity excellence and culturally relevant education experiences that inspire and reframe the discussion about getting to excellence The book is replete with illustrations of weaknesses hidden in abstract policies institutional persistence and culturally void programs methodologies and practices It advocates a methodology for arriving at well conceived processes for achieving acceptance and academic excellence through collaboration among those to whom education is important the children and the communities where they live      Leading the Parade! Janet Burgess, 2019-02-08 Leading the Parade is a book for teachers and leaders who are faced with the task of leading teams of peers With little formal training and more responsibilities teacher leaders seek answers and direction that will help them build strong professional teams to support student learning Using a leadership framework followed by Q A s the author helps leaders understand the dynamics in which they are working and provides answers useful tools resources activities and conversation starters that move teams forward
