Resources in Education ,1998 Transformational Human Resources Management in Zimbabwe Mervis Chiware,Bernard Nkala,Innocent Chirisa,2022-09-19 This book is a stepping stone toward solving public sector human capital challenges in Zimbabwe as it equips human capital managers with solutions to key issues in the public sector In Zimbabwe the public sector human capital drives the economy as over half of the population access their services through public enterprises Government is the major agent in economic and infrastructure development as well as the production of goods and services However Zimbabwe s public service is underperforming due to poorly motivated and managed employees who do not respond to the needs of its clients This is a cause of concern as the public sector human capital is central to the overall performance of the public sector Often public sector managers and leaders lack advanced relevant and dynamic skills and knowledge to deal with human resource challenges within the New Public Management environment It is critical for the public sector to transform its human resource management to suit twenty first century needs Effective human resource management in the public sector leads to economic growth and therefore the achievement of the Zimbabwe National Vision 2030 Therefore this book serves as a guide for public sector managers and those directly or indirectly involved in human capital management It provides in depth knowledge and guidance in effective human capital management within the context of the public sector in Zimbabwe Zimbabwe Books in Print ,1993 Reforming Science Teacher Education Programs in the STEM Era Sulaiman M. Al-Balushi,Lisa Martin-Hansen,Youngjin Song,2023-06-07 This edited book explores different international practices in reforming science teacher education programs for STEM education Incorporating case studies in Asia the Middle East Africa Europe North America and South America the contributors emphasise the large variety in STEM teacher preparation Including science centric versions of STEM programs as well as more integrated models of STEM this contextual diversity will help readers learn about the design opportunities and challenges of STEM teacher preparation in a variety of circumstances in order to innovate and improve STEM education more broadly Zimbabwe National Bibliography ,1986 International Books in Print ,1990 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1984 Corpus-informed Research and Learning in ESP Alex Boulton,Shirley Carter-Thomas,Elizabeth Rowley-Jolivet,2012 These specially commissioned studies cover corpus informed approaches to researching teaching and learning English for Specific Purposes ESP The corpora used range from very large published corpora to small tailor made collections of written and spoken text as well as parallel and contrastive corpora in both the hard and softer sciences Designed to tackle the problems faced by a variety of first and second language ESP users specialised translators undergraduates junior and experienced researchers and language trainers the breadth of approaches enables treatment of issues central to ESP and corpus research from corpus compilation and analysis to new applications and data driven learning The first full length book on applied corpus use in France Corpus Informed Research and Learning in ESP will be of interest not only to those working in the French context but to a wide variety of language professionals teachers researchers or course designers in many countries looking at ESP from different linguistic cultural and educational perspectives

Case Studies in Human Ecology Daniel G. Bates, Sarah H. Lees, 2013-06-29 This volume was developed to meet a much noted need for accessible case study material for courses in human ecology cultural ecology cultural geography and other subjects increasingly offered to fulfill renewed student and faculty interest in environmental issues The case studies all taken from the journal Human Ecology An Interdisciplinary Journal represent a broad cross section of contemporary research It is tempting but inaccurate to suggest that these represent the Best of Human Ecology They were selected from among many outstanding possibilities because they worked well with the organization of the book which in turn reflects the way in which courses in human ecology are often organized This book provides a useful sample of case studies in the application of the perspective of human ecology to a wide variety of problems in different regions of the world University courses in human ecology typically begin with basic concepts pertaining to energy flow feeding relations material cycles population dynamics and ecosystem properties and then take up illustrative case studies of human environmental interactions These are usually discussed either along the lines of distinctive strategies of food procurement such as foraging or pastoralism or as adaptations to specific habitat types or biomes such as the circumpolar regions or arid lands
