Teaching Young Adult Literature Thomas W. Bean, Judith Dunkerly-Bean, Helen J. Harper, 2013-02-14 Teaching Young Adult Literature: Developing Students As World Citizens by Thomas W. Bean, Judith Dunkerly-Bean, and Helen Harper is a middle and secondary school methods text that introduces pre-service teachers in teacher credential programs and in-service teachers pursuing a Masters degree in Education to the field of young adult literature for use in contemporary contexts. The text introduces teachers to current research on adolescent life and literacy, the new and expanding genres of young adult literature, teaching approaches and practical strategies for using young adult literature in English and Language Arts secondary classrooms and in Content Area Subjects, e.g. History, and ongoing social, political, and pedagogical issues of English and Language Arts classrooms in relation to contemporary young adult literature.

Teaching Literature in Times of Crisis Sofia Ahlberg, 2021-06-13 Teaching Literature in Times of Crisis looks at the range of different crises currently affecting students, from climate change and systemic racism to the global pandemic. Addressing the impact on students' ability and motivation to learn, as well as their emotional wellbeing, this volume guides teachers toward strategies for introducing both canonical and contemporary literature in ways that demonstrate the future relevance of sophisticated and targeted literacy skills. These reading practices are invaluable for framing and critically examining the challenges associated with crisis in order to help cope with grief and as a means to impart the skills needed to deal with crisis, such as adaptability, flexibility, resilience, and resistance. Providing necessary background theory alongside practical case studies, the book addresses reading practices for demonstrating how literature explores ethical issues in specific and concrete rather than abstract terms. Making connections between disparate phenomena and how literature mobilises affect in individual and collective human lives. Supporting teachers in considering new imaginative ways students can learn from literary content and form in online or remote learning environments, as well as face-to-face. Combining close and distant reading with creative and hands-on strategies, presenting the principles of a transitional pedagogy for a world in flux. This book introduces teachers to methods for reading and studying literature with the aim of strengthening and promoting resilience and resourcefulness in and out of the literature classroom and empower students as global citizens with local roles to play.
