Modes of Politicization in the Irish Civil Service Aodhán Mac Cormaic, 2016-08-05 This book presents a study of the relationship between Cabinet level Ministers and top civil servants in Ireland The nature of this relationship can potentially have far reaching effects on people s lives as it can influence the type of public policy agreed at top levels of government A total of sixteen interviews were carried out for the research eight with retired Cabinet level Ministers and eight with retired Secretaries General of Irish government departments Anonymity not just for the participants but also for the government departments in which they had served was vital to the success of the research Also vital was the fact that only retirees were interviewed as this removed the fear for participants that their careers might suffer if they spoke too frankly The result is a collection of interviews containing frank and open views on the relationship between Ministers and their officials and on how this relationship influences public policy development The Red Cross Movement Neville Wylie, Melanie Oppenheimer, James Crossland, 2020-03-26 This book offers new and exciting scholarship on the history of the Red Cross Movement by leading historians in the field It re imagines and re evaluates the Red Cross as an institutional network and a key actor in the humanitarian space through two centuries of war and peace Smarter as the New Urban Agenda J. Ramon Gil-Garcia, Theresa A. Pardo, Taewoo Nam, 2015-09-07 This book will provide one of the first comprehensive approaches to the study of smart city governments with theories and concepts for understanding and researching 21st century city governments innovative methodologies for the analysis and evaluation of smart city initiatives The term smart city is now generally used to represent efforts that in different ways describe a comprehensive vision of a city for the present and future A smarter city infuses information into its physical infrastructure to improve conveniences facilitate mobility add efficiencies conserve energy improve the quality of air and water identify problems and fix them quickly recover rapidly from disasters collect data to make better decisions deploy resources effectively and share data to enable collaboration across entities and domains These and other similar efforts are expected to make cities more intelligent in terms of efficiency effectiveness productivity transparency and sustainability among other important aspects Given this changing social institutional and technology environment it seems feasible and likeable to attain smarter cities and by extension smarter governments virtually integrated networked interconnected responsive and efficient This book will help build the bridge between sound research and practice expertise in the area of smarter cities and will be of interest to researchers and students in the e government public administration political science communication information science administrative sciences and management sociology computer science and information technology As well as government officials and public managers who will find practical recommendations based on rigorous studies that will contain insights and guidance for the development management and evaluation of complex smart cities and smart government initiatives Drones and Unmanned Aerial Systems Aleš Završnik, 2015-12-23 This book tackles the regulatory issues of Unmanned Aerial Systems UAS or Remotely Piloted Aerial Systems RPAS which have profound consequences for privacy security and other fundamental liberties Collectively known as drones they were initially deployed for military purposes reconnaissance surveillance and extrajudicial executions Today we are witnessing a growth of their use into the civilian and humanitarian domain They are increasingly used for goals as diverse as news gathering aerial inspection of oil refinery flare stacks mapping of the Amazonian rain forest crop spraying and search and rescue operations The civil use of drones is becoming a reality in the European Union and in the US The drone revolution may be a new technological revolution Proliferation of the next generation of recreational drones show how drones will be sold as any other consumer item The cultural perception of the technology is shifting as drones are increasingly being used for humanitarian activities on one hand but they can also firmly be situated in the prevailing modes of postmodern governance on the other hand This work will be of interest to researchers in Criminology and Criminal Justice interested in issues related to surveillance security privacy and technology It will also provide a criminological background for related legal issues such as privacy law aviation law international criminal law and comparative law Making a Difference? Susanna Price, Kathryn Robinson, 2015-01-01 Social assessment for projects in China is an important emerging field This collection of essays from authors whose formative work has influenced the policies that shape practice in development affected communities locates recent Chinese experience of the development of social assessment practices including in displacement and resettlement in a historical and comparative perspective Contributors social scientists employed by international development banks national government agencies and sub contracting groups examine projects from a practitioner s perspective Real life experiences are presented as case specific praxis theoretically informed insight and pragmatic lessons learned grounded in the history of this field of development practice They reflect on work where economic determinism reigns supreme yet project failure or success often hinges upon sociopolitical and cultural factors Muslims in Ireland Oliver Scharbrodt, 2015-03-20 This book combines historical sociological and ethnographic research methods to provide a rich and multi faceted study of the Muslim presence in Ireland in its historical and contemporary dimensions Modernization Dreams, Lusotropical Promises Ana Beatriz Ribeiro, 2020-06-15 New Books Network Modernization Dreams Lusotropical Promises What history and motivations make up the discourses we are taught to hold and spread as common sense As a member of Brazil s upper middle class Ana Beatriz Ribeiro grew up with the image that to be developed was to be as European as possible However as a researcher in Europe during her country s Workers Party era she kept reading that Africans should be repaid for developing Brazilian society via Brazil s bestowal of development upon Africa as an emerging power In Modernization Dreams Lusotropical Promises the researcher investigates where these two worldviews might intersect diverge and date back to gauging relations between representatives and projects of the Brazilian and Mozambican states said to be joined in cooperation more than others

Phosphorus in Agriculture: 100 % Zero Ewald Schnug, Luit J. De Kok, 2016-06-14 The title Phosphorus in Agriculture 100 % Zero is synonymous for make or break And it stands up to the promise This book sends an important message as it delivers background information intrinsic hypotheses validation approaches and legal frameworks all for balanced phosphorus fertilization in agriculture This implies firstly that the phosphorus requirement of crop is fully satisfied by applying exclusively fertilizers which contain the nutrient in completely available form Secondly environmental demands through eutrophication and hazardous contaminants must not be compromised The book identifies equally knowledge gaps and deficits in the transformation and implementation of research into practice Bottom line is that research delivers the tools for a sustainable phosphorus management while legal frameworks are insufficient Protection of Geographic Names in International Law and Domain Name System Heather Ann Forrest, 2017-03-15 Written by internal counsel for internal counsel clear concise and inspirational Personifies that the benefit of the bargain is not simply a game of numbers Ute Joas

Labor of Love Moira Weigel, 2016-05-17 An occasionally amusing and often provocative look at the work of wooing A lively tour of changing romantic mores The Economist Does anyone date anymore Today the authorities tell us that courtship is in crisis But when Moira Weigel dives into the history of sex and romance in modern America she discovers that authorities have always said this Ever since young men and women started to go out together older generations have scolded them That s not the way to find true love The first women who made dates with strangers were often arrested for prostitution long before hookup culture there were petting parties before parents worried about cell phone apps they fretted about joyrides and parking Dating is always dying But this does not mean that love is dead It simply changes with the economy Dating is and always has been tied to work Lines like I ll pick you up at six made sense at a time when people had jobs that started and ended at fixed hours But in an age of contract work and flextime many of us have become sexual freelancers more likely to text a partner u still up Weaving together over one hundred years of history with scenes from the contemporary landscape Labor of Love offers a fresh feminist perspective on how we came to date the ways we do This isn t a guide to getting the guy There are no ridiculous rules to follow Instead Weigel helps us understand how looking for love shapes who we are and hopefully leads us closer to the happy ending that dating promises

Residential Schools and Reconciliation J.R. Miller, 2017-01-01 Residential Schools and Reconciliation is a unique timely and provocative work that tackles and explains the institutional responses to Canada s residential school legacy

Culinary Mestizaje Felipe Hinojosa,Rudy P. Guevarra,2025-07-22 How cross racial and ethnic communities have created new culinary traditions and food cultures in the United States Culinary Mestizaje is about food cooking and community but it s also about how immigrant labor and racial mixing are transforming established US food cultures from Hawai i to the coast of Maine South Philadelphia to the Pacific Northwest This collection of essays asks what it means that Chamorro cooking is now considered a regional specialty of the Bay Area and that a fusion like brisket tacos registers as native to Houston while pupusas are the pride of Atlanta Combining community scholarly insights cooking tips and recipes the pieces assembled here are interested in how the blending of culinary traditions enables marginalized people to thrive in places fraught with racial tension anti immigrant sentiment and the threat of gentrification Chefs and entrepreneurs matter in these stories but so do dishwashers farm laborers and immigrants doing the best they can with the ingredients they have Their best it turns out is often delicious and creative sparking culinary evolutions while maintaining ancestral connections The result is that cooking under the weight of colonial rule and white supremacy has in revealing ways created American food
