The Figure of the Road Christopher D. Morris, 2007 The Figure of the Road examines the metaphor of the road way or path in works of representative humanities disciplines literature religion philosophy visual art popular culture to show how writers and artists anticipated the dilemma known to contemporary deconstruction as the aporia or pathless place This tradition exposes the solution advocated in Derrida's late thought the search for the tout autre as a negative theology and suppression of writing's freedom to allegorize these insoluble problems The Figure of the Road concludes by tracing the bleak Beckett like implications of this freedom for curriculum and ethics in a world understood as wholly figural
