the most comprehensive up to date reference work available on the subject Reframing the Urban Challenge in Africa Ntombini Marrengane, Sylvia Croese, 2020-12-03 This book explores the changing dynamics and challenges behind the rapid expanse of Africa's urban population Africa's urban age is underway With the world's fastest growing urban population the continent is rapidly transforming from one that is largely rural to one that is largely urban Often facing limited budgets those tasked with managing African cities require empirical evidence on the nature of demands for infrastructure escalating environmental hazards and ever expanding informal settlements Drawing on the work of the African Urban Research Initiative this book brings together contributions from local researchers investigating key themes and challenges within their own contexts An important example of urban knowledge co production the book demonstrates the regional diversity that can be seen as the main feature of African urbanism with even well accepted concepts such as informality manifesting in markedly different ways from place to place Providing an important nuanced perspective on the heterogeneity of African cities and the challenges they face this book will be an important resource for researchers across development studies
