Patriarchal Lineages in 21st-Century Christian Courtship

Elizabeth L. Shively,2020-08-10 Drawing from a study of courtship media and ethnographic work at purity retreats and home school conventions across the Midwest this is the first inquiry into modern Christian courtship an alternative to dating that asks young people to avoid both romance and sex until they are ready to be married Bridging sociological and historical studies of American Christianity with youth and girlhood studies literatures Elizabeth Shively finds that the courtship system is designed to shore up the patriarchal nuclear family structure at the center of conservative Christianity and ensure predictability in the face of emerging adulthood single young women work to embody ideals of luminous femininity and model themselves after archetypes such as the Proverbs 31 woman the stay at home daughter and the mission minded girl and courting couples strive to guard their hearts against premature emotional intimacy Nonetheless participants report that courtship like other relationships inevitably carries an element of risk and it ultimately fails to offer a substantial challenge to the sexist realities of youth dating culture

A Hunter-Gatherer's Guide to the 21st Century Heather Heying, Bret Weinstein, 2021-09-14
A bold provocative history of our species finds the roots of civilization's success and failure in our evolutionary biology We are living through the most prosperous age in all of human history yet people are more listless divided and miserable than ever Wealth and comfort are unparalleled and yet our political landscape grows ever more toxic and rates of suicide loneliness and chronic illness continue to skyrocket How do we explain the gap between these two truths What's more what can we do to close it For evolutionary biologists Heather Heying and Bret Weinstein the cause of our woes is clear the modern world is out of sync with our ancient brains and bodies We evolved to live in clans but today most people don't even know their neighbors names Traditional gender roles once served a necessary evolutionary purpose but today we dismiss them as regressive The cognitive dissonance spawned by trying to live in a society we're not built for is killing us In this book Heying and Weinstein cut through the politically fraught discourse surrounding issues like sex gender diet parenting sleep education and more to outline a provocative science based worldview that will empower you to live a better wiser life They distill more than 20 years of research and first hand accounts from the most biodiverse ecosystems on Earth into straight forward principles and guidance for confronting our culture of hyper novelty
