Jewish and Arab Childhood in Israel Einat Baram Eshel, Wurud Jayusi, Ilana Paul-Binyamin, Eman Younis, 2021-08-06. This book is a result of the growing public and academic interest in the variety of childhoods that take place side by side in the multicultural state of Israel despite its tiny geographical dimensions. In a collection of groundbreaking articles the book describes various features of Israeli childhoods in the present and recent past in both Arab and Jewish societies. The first section of the book Childhood and Environment in Israel addresses the various spaces in which childhood practices occurred and still occur in Israel: the intimate home environment, the educational environment, playgrounds and many others. The second section Childhoods and Power Structures in Israeli Literature illuminates the perceptions and images of childhood and describes the extensive and heterogenic variety of childhood representations in Jewish and Arab literature. Scholars of culture, society, education and literature, Jews and Arabs have joined forces to encourage in depth thinking about perceptions of childhood in the diverse Israeli society, the status of children in Arab and Jewish societies and the resources invested to nurture them from a global aspect as individuals with universal duties and rights and/or a local point of view as a national asset as designers of the nation's future or alternatively as a burden, nuisance or threat.
