Complete Catalogue of Sheet Music and Musical Works published by the Board of Music Trade, etc Board of Music Trade (UNITED STATES OF AMERICA),1870      Confederate Sheet Music E. Lawrence Abel,2015-06-14 During the American Civil War songs united and inspired people on both sides The North had a well established music publishing industry when the war broke out but the South had no such industry The importance of music as an expression of the South s beliefs was obvious as one music publisher said The South must not only fight her own battles but sing her own songs and dance to music composed by her own children Southern entrepreneurs quickly rose to the challenge This reference book is distinguished by three major differences from previously published works First it lists sheet music that is no longer extant and listed nowhere else Second it gives complete lyrics for all extant songs a rich source for researchers And third a brief historical background has been provided for many of the songs Each entry provides as much of the following as possible staying faithful to the typography of each title page the title as published names of all lyricists composers and publishers dates of publication cities of publication and if applicable the names of catalogs or magazines in which the song appeared Music published in Southern cities under Federal occupation is excluded      Program Notes Cleveland Orchestra,1929

Heyman,1994-05-12 Samuel Barber 1910 1981 was one of the most important and honored American composers of the twentieth century Writing in a great variety of musical forms symphonies concertos operas vocal music and chamber music he infused his works with poetic lyricism and gave tonal language and forms new vitality His rich legacy includes such famous compositions as the Adagio for Strings the orchestral song Knoxville Summer of 1915 three concertos and his two operas the Pulitzer Prize winning Vanessa and Antony and Cleopatra a commissioned work that opened the new Metropolitan Opera House at Lincoln Center Generously documented by letters sketchbooks original musical manuscripts and interviews with friends colleagues and performers with whom he worked this is the first book to cover Barber's entire career and all of his compositions. The biographical material on Barber is closely interspersed with a discussion of his music displaying Barber's creative processes at work from his early student compositions to his mature masterpieces. Heyman also provides the social context in which this major composer grew: his education, how he built his career, the evolving musical tastes of American audiences, his relationship to musical giants like Serge Koussevitzky and the role of radio in the promotion of his music. A testament to the significance of the new Romanticism, Samuel Barber stands as a model biography of an important American musical figure.

The brother and sister team of Karen and Richard Carpenter rank as one of the most successful acts in pop music history. Between the first Carpenters album released in 1969 and their final studio album together in 1981 they achieved three Grammy awards, 18 hits in the US Top 20 and ten in the UK and multiple platinum discs leading to eventual sales of over 100 million copies worldwide. Although the group's career was brought to a tragic and premature end by the untimely death of Karen Carpenter in 1983, they remain a much-loved band. The Carpenters crafted their own distinctive sound with multi-part harmonies and lush arrangements. A unique singer and gifted interpreter of songs, Karen was also passionate about playing the drums, with Richard's talents extending to keyboards, singing, composing, arranging, and producing. This book explores the background to each of their studio albums and classic singles, as well as their solo recordings, live albums, and compilations of rare tracks. From their earliest recordings in a jazz trio through to Richard's reinterpretations of their best-known songs with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and as a solo pianist, this appraisal looks at over 55 years of Carpenters' material. Paul Tornbohm is a songwriter and musician. As befits a Carpenters fan, he has recorded an album of his songs, August Afternoons, with his sister Cathy on lead vocals. A former member of the ghost rock group Piano Magic, Paul has also released the solo EP Down an English Lane. Additionally, he composes for Spontaneous Productions, a theatre company in Sydenham, London. Paul has a Masters in music production from Kingston University, teaches music qualifications at a sixth-form college in Surrey, and lives in Crystal Palace, London, with his wife, the composer Yumi Mashiki. This is his first book.
