Goodbye, Mary Janes Adleyn Scott, 2010-10 Enjoy your childhood Have fun while you can That's what parents tell their children Jane Adleyn Geiger did enjoy her childhood immensely Her blessings in life include a Christian upbringing two wonderful most of the time sisters loving parents and a middle class economic privilege Her story begins with a recreation of her grandparents and parents courtship and marriage Her parents were married just a few days before the Stock Market crashed in 1929 and they suffered many hardships of life over the next few years Adleyn grew up during the 1950's and has written this stimulating account of her childhood her school years and her musical journey A teen pregnancy and her subsequent marriage changed the focus of her life from high school friends And The possibility of a music conservatory experience to that of family survival She has included stories of her family friends and teachers who helped her succeed along the way Often hilarious this nostalgic retelling of her childhood is a universal project of many adults though many do not have the nerve to put it in writing Included in the book is a personal letter to each of her children telling about the special memories that make each one so unique Adleyn's fascination with shoes the way they look The way they feel And The way the smell when they're new has given her a theme For The entire story During many of the pivotal junctions in her life her shoes of the times were an integral part of the major events New shoes became a Rite of Passage to new places in life's journey Imagine wearing a comfortable pair of Mary Janes while you read this story of courage perseverance and determination

Mary's Christmas Goodbye Linda Byler, 2015-10-06 Mary Stoltzfus is thirty years old splashed with freckles and unmarried In her Amish world that qualifies her to be called an old maid She is living her quiet schoolteacher life in the Lancaster County Amish community when she gets a surprising invitation in the mail one day Would she come to Montana to teach Of course not she decides fully at home in eastern Pennsylvania where she can go out to eat in dozens of restaurants do her laundry in a newfangled washer that's powered by compressed air and hire a driver if she wants to go farther than her horse and buggy can comfortably take her What is there to do in Montana she sniffs But soon she becomes annoyed by the cracks in the floor of her one room schoolhouse the noise of the nearby road and the two eighth grade boys who try to make toilet paper cigarettes and nearly burn down the privy Before long Mary is on Amtrak just to take care of her curiosity she explains to her mother She arrives at a desolate station and meets Arthur Bontrager who had signed the invitation and has come to introduce her to Beaver Creek School dirt roads and the fancy shed where she would live When she settles into this world of mountain ranges and pine tree majesty her old buried questions about why no man had ever been her match have come along to live with her After she s injured by wild dogs on her walk home from school Mary faces new questions Is she weak if she accepts a Bouvier des Flandres dog from Arthur s friend Who is the young woman in the photo at Arthur s house And why does she suddenly care Does she really belong back in Lancaster Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade Yucca and Good Books imprints are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in fiction novels novellas political and medical thrillers comedy satire historical fiction romance erotic and love stories mystery classic literature folklore and mythology literary classics including Shakespeare Dumas Wilde Cather and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home
