

Jesus Calls Us to Stewardship

When confronted by much of the media following the 9/11 tragedy, Pope John Paul II responded with grace. He did not focus on the tragedy itself but the "other" that day in the memory of his faith.

The Stewardship of Life

The news is full of the most inspiring stories that emerged out of the September tragedy, but the highlight is John Paul II's words and how they were so encouraging and inspiring.

A Healing Prayer Received a Blessing

During a September 11 memorial vigil, a young woman, a friend of the author, was asked to pray for the victims of the September 11 tragedy. She had no idea what to say, but she knew she wanted to say something that would comfort and encourage the victims and their families. She prayed for the victims and their families, and she prayed for the healing of the world. Her prayer was heard, and she was blessed with a healing prayer that she had never heard before.

"The healing prayer" is a prayer that is said for the healing of the world. It is a prayer that is said for the healing of the world, and it is a prayer that is said for the healing of the world. The healing prayer is a prayer that is said for the healing of the world, and it is a prayer that is said for the healing of the world. The healing prayer is a prayer that is said for the healing of the world, and it is a prayer that is said for the healing of the world.
