According to the New Syllabus of Maharshi Dayanand University Rohtak based on NEP 2020 The Progressive Miseducation of America Corey Miller, 2025-10-14 If You Want to Change the World Change the University Our culture is undergoing radical change We see evidence of this cultural revolution all around us as values norms language and laws all shift beneath our feet But this revolution didn't come out of nowhere and it isn't too late to stop it The Progressive Miseducation of America is an eye opening look at how our universities have polluted the cultural landscape we live in today and how Christians can take strategic actions in response As a dedicated student of culture and revolutionary history Corey Miller brings clear insights and actionable ideas to help you understand and defend against ideas subversive to the Christian faith further the Christian life and worldview through intentional methods of being salt and light inspire change not only within your family and church but in the broader culture Sobering yet optimistic this bold and inspiring resource will equip you to take concrete steps in making the largest and most sustainable difference in both your community and the world

Broke Jodie Adams Kirshner, 2019-11-19 Essential in showcasing people who are persistent clever flawed loving struggling and full of contradictions Broke affirms why it's worth solving the hardest problems in our most challenging cities in the first place Anna Clark The New York Times Through in depth reporting of structural inequality as it affects real people in Detroit Jodie Adams Kirshner's Broke examines one side of the economic divide in America Salon What Broke really tells us is how systems of government law and finance can crush even the hardest of boot strap pullers Brian Alexander author of Glass House A galvanizing narrative account of a city's bankruptcy and its aftermath told through the lives of seven valiantly struggling Detroiters Bankruptcy and the austerity it represents have become a common solution for struggling American cities What do the spending cuts and limited resources do to the lives of city residents In Broke Jodie Adams Kirshner follows seven Detroiters as they navigate life during and after their city's bankruptcy Reggie loses his savings trying to make a habitable home for his family Cindy fights drug use prostitution and dumping on her block Lola commutes two hours a day to her suburban job For them financial issues are mired within the larger ramifications of poor urban policies restorative negligence on the state and federal level and even before the decision to declare Detroit bankrupt in 2013 the root causes of a city's fiscal demise Like Matthew Desmond's Evicted Broke looks at what municipal distress means not just on paper but in practical and personal terms More than 40 percent of Detroit's 700 000 residents fall below the poverty line Post bankruptcy they struggle with a broken real estate market school system and job market and their lives have not improved Detroit is emblematic Kirshner makes a powerful argument that cities the economic engine of America are never quite given the aid that they need by either the state or federal government for their residents to survive not to mention flourish Success for all America's citizens depends on equity of opportunity

Higher Education - Reflections From the Field - Volume 4, 2023-11-02 COVID wrought havoc on the world's economic systems Higher education did not escape the ravages brought on by the pandemic as institutions of higher education around the world faced major upheavals in their educational delivery systems Some institutions were prepared for the required transition to online learning Most were not Whether prepared or not educators rose to the challenge The innovativeness of educators met the challenges as digital learning replaced the face to face environment In fact some of the distance models proved so engaging that many students no longer desire a return to the face to face model As with all transitions some things were lost while others were gained This book examines practice in the field as institutions struggled to face the worst global pandemic in the last century The book is organized into four sections on Embracing Quality Assurance Educational Standards and Quality Assurance Evaluating Educational Access and Why Assessment It presents various perspectives from educators around the world to illustrate the struggles and triumphs of those facing new challenges and implementing new ideas to empower the educational process These discussions shed light on the impact of the pandemic and the future of higher education post COVID Higher education has been forever changed and higher education as it once was may never return While many questions arise the achievements in meeting and overcoming the pandemic illustrate the creativity and innovativeness of educators around the world who inspired future generations of learners to reach new heights of accomplishment even in the face of the pandemic

Life by Algorithms Catherine Besteman, Hugh Gusterson, 2019-05-23 Computerized processes are everywhere in our society They are the automated phone messaging systems that businesses use to screen calls the link between student standardized test scores and public schools access to resources the algorithms that regulate patient diagnoses and reimbursements to doctors The storage sorting and analysis of massive amounts of information have enabled the automation of decision making at an unprecedented level Meanwhile computers have offered a model of cognition that increasingly shapes our approach to the world The proliferation of robo-processes is the result as editors Catherine Besteman and Hugh Gusterson observe in this rich and wide ranging volume which features contributions from a distinguished cast of scholars in anthropology communications international studies and political science Although automatic processes are designed to be engines of rational systems the stories in Life by Algorithms reveal how they can in fact produce absurd inflexible or even dangerous outcomes Joining the call for algorithmic transparency the contributors bring exceptional sensitivity to everyday sociality into their critique to better understand how the perils of modern technology affect finance medicine education housing the workplace food production public space and emotions not as separate problems but as linked manifestations of a deeper defect in the fundamental ordering of our society Contributors Catherine Besteman Alex Blanchette Robert W Gehl Hugh Gusterson Catherine Lutz Ann Lutz Fernandez Joseph Masco Sally Engle Merry Keesha M Middlemass Noelle Stout Susan J Terrio
