O'Leary/Dennis S. O'Leary, 2016-02-04 Across the span of more than forty years Raphael Dorman O Leary a professor of English rhetoric and English literature taught his students at the University of Kansas to think straight to put sinew into their sentences and to embrace the magnificent literary treasures of their mother tongue The English Professor by authors Margaret R O Leary and Dennis S O Leary offers a narrative of the life work and times of a revered Midwestern university English teacher This memoir narrates how the professor born in 1866 was raised on a Kansas farm in the post bellum era Like his father before him he was committed to a life of learning and teaching His colleagues knew him for his unpretentious exterior honesty and integrity and his flashing anger at cheapness vulgarity pretense and above all charlatanism When Professor O Leary died after a short illness in 1936 his personal effects passed through two generations to his grandson Dennis S O Leary who with his wife Margaret discovered his papers while restoring a family house The trove of material served as the core resource for the compilation of The English Professor It provides insights into the histories of Kansas and the University of Kansas and of Harvard University as well as perspectives on higher education including the teaching of English rhetoric language literature journalism and oratory in the United States

Community-Owned Transport Leigh Glover, 2016-11-03 City and state governments around the world are struggling to achieve environmentally sustainable transport Economic technological city and transport planning and human behaviour solutions are often hampered by ineffective implementation So attention is now turning to institutional governmental and political barriers Approaches to these implementation problems assume that transport ownership can only be public owned by state entities or private corporate or personal Another option largely unexplored to date is communal ownership of transport Community Owned Transport proposes and develops the notion that communal ownership has a historical basis and provides unique opportunities for providing personal mobility It looks at the historical roots of modern urban transport s failings as those of technological change and the associated governing of transport systems particularly the role of public sector institutions Community ownership is explored through the new sharing economy developments car sharing ridesharing and bicycle share schemes and older social innovations in ecovillages and communal living Models and practices of community ownership of transport are provided and this study also discusses how community ownership might contribute to sustainable transport Drawing widely on different disciplines and fields of scholarship this book explores the conceptual and practical aspects of communal ownership of transport It will be a valuable resource for those seeking innovative approaches to addressing the pressing problems of transport including graduate and postgraduate students as well as policymakers practitioners and community groups

Rare Earth Frontiers Julie M. Klinger, 2018-01-15 Rare Earth Frontiers is a work of human geography that serves to demystify the powerful elements that make possible the miniaturization of electronics green energy and medical technologies and essential telecommunications and defense systems Julie Michelle Klinger draws attention to the fact that the rare earths we rely on most are as common as copper or lead and this means the implications of their extraction are global Klinger excavates the rich historical origins and ongoing ramifications of the quest to mine rare earths in ever more impossible places Klinger writes about the devastating damage to lives and the environment caused by the exploitation of rare earths She demonstrates in human terms how scarcity myths have been conscripted into diverse geopolitical campaigns that use rare earth mining as a pretext to capture spaces that have historically fallen beyond the grasp of centralized power These include legally and logistically forbidding locations in the Amazon Greenland and Afghanistan and on the Moon Drawing on ethnographic archival and interview data gathered in local languages and offering possible solutions to the problems it documents this book examines the production of the rare earth frontier as a place a concept and a zone of contestation sacrifice and transformation

Biennial Report Erie (Pa.). Board of School Directors,1903 Rule Britannia Danny Dorling,2019-01-15 Things fall apart when empires crumble This time we think things will be different They are not This time we are told we will become great again We will not In this new edition of the hugely successful Rule Britannia Danny Dorling and Sally Tomlinson argue that the vote to leave the EU was the last gasp of the old empire working its way out of the British psyche Fuelled by a misplaced nostalgia the result was driven by a lack of knowledge of Britain s imperial history by a profound anxiety about Britain s status today and by a deeply unrealistic vision of our future
