Psychosocial Pathways Towards Reinventing the South African University Sabrina Liccardo, 2020-11-02 This book proposes a conceptual empirical framework for exploring forms of continuity and change along psychosocial pathways in South African universities. It illustrates how the psychosocial pathways are grounded in the symbolic narratives and knowledges of young scientists, engineers and architects, all interlocutors in the research from which this book is based. Alala Mamoratwa Welile Odirile Kaiya Amirah Takalani Nosakhele Naila Ambani Khanyisile Itumeleng Ethwasa and Kgnaya provide collective standpoints in the multiplicities within and between the lived lives and told stories of young Black South African women in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) fields. In doing so, this compelling work advances possibilities for demythologising scientific endeavour as a white male achievement and shifting knowledge communities across gendered, racialised class and national divides. This book presents an innovative narrative methodology utilising the myth of the Minotaur to examine the state of the university at the heart of the hierarchical labyrinth in post-apartheid South Africa. Throughout the work, the author wrestles with and self-reflexively highlights her own positionality as a white middle-class South African woman to examine how this affects the production of this research in ways which serve to preserve the colonial knowledge system. With the rise of the Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall student movement in South Africa, demanding for the fall of institutionalised racial hierarchies, the author uses the cover image of narrative formations in the spirit of exploration to think with and through undulating networked forms that could possibly forge new psychosocial pathways towards decolonising and reinventing South African universities. This work offers a unique conceptual and methodological resource for students and scholars of psychosocial and narrative theory, as well as those who are concerned about the politics of higher education both in South Africa and in other contexts around the world. Education in Africa Daniel Burgos, Jako Olivier, 2021-08-02 This book explores the state of open education in terms of self-directed learning on the African continent. Through a combination of conceptual, systematic literature review and empirical chapters, readers will get a research-based impression of these aspects in this area. Apart from presenting existing wider trends regarding open education, this book also reports on effective open practices in support of self-directed learning.

Black Youth Aspirations Botshabelo Maja, 2021-11-10 This book is about how to trigger the capacity to aspire among black youth. Examining the transition out of adulthood and imagined futures of black youth, Maja helps us understand how black youth aspirations might be raised and how a better future for young people can be achieved. EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning: Achieving quality for all UNESCO, 2014-02-04 The 2013-2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education Learner Performance in South Africa Charles Edward Wickens Simkins, Andrew Paterson, 2005 South Africa has done well to systematically expand its educational system and to lengthen the schooling experience of successive learner cohorts But the quality of the output from the school system has been questioned In seeking to identify the reasons for this it is important to relate educational outputs competencies as measured for instance by examinations or standardized tests to inputs Determining the relative contributions of the inputs of the school the household and the individual learner to educational outputs is not straightforward particularly since very little educational production function analysis has been undertaken in South Africa Until recently no South African school data has incorporated test results school characteristics and information on the household circumstances of individual learners necessary for this kind of analysis However the results from a survey of a sample of schools involved in the large scale Quality Learning Project QLP funded by the Business Trust have yielded such data The QLP data set offers a new analytical opportunity to address the question What are the effects of social and economic variables on educational outcomes in the QLP schools Mathematics and Science Achievement at South African Schools in TIMSS 2003 Vijay Reddy, 2006 This monograph reports on South Africa s performance in TIMSS 2003 relative to 50 other countries describes the performance of different groups of learners in South Africa and provides contextual information about teachers schools and the curriculum The report concludes with recommendations for strategic interventions to improve South African learners performance in mathematics and science The findings contained in this report offer valuable insights to academics policymakers curriculum planners and teachers and those involved in the development of education in South Africa Researching Mathematics Education in South Africa Renuka Vithal, Jill Adler, Christine Keitel, 2005 Reflecting on the theoretical and ideological work that has contributed to the growth of mathematics education research in South Africa this study provides a historical analysis of forces that have changed and shaped mathematics curricula over the years The themes researched and explored include radical pedagogy progressive classroom practices ethnomathematics and South African mathematics education research within both its local and international contexts Strategic Management in the Public Sector Trevor H. Thys, Prof Charles Wait, Prof Ilse Truter, 2022-07-13 Chapter 1 Integrative strategic planning in South Africa Conceptual frameworks Chapter 2 Electoral mandate priorities policy and strategy Chapter 3 Economic planning economic policy or development policy Past present and future Chapter 4 Planning human resources Chapter 5 General management and leadership Chapter 6 Strategy formulation and environment analysis Chapter 7 Internal analysis and implementation Chapter 8 Strategy implementation and change management Chapter 9 Performance management system Chapter 10 Monitoring and evaluation Chapter 11 Health care in South Africa Chapter 12 Socio economic context of education South Africa Survey ,2009 CO-OPERATIVE LEARNING: A STRATEGY FOR EFFECTIVE CLASSROOM TEACHING IN SOCIAL SCIENCE (An Empirical Study) Dr. U. K. KULKARNI, South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull,Jonathan D. Jansen,2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa s leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90 10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people s future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI Improving National Education Systems After COVID-19 Nuno Crato,Harry Anthony Patrinos,2024-10-14 This open access book compares and analyses the results in twelve countries of the two latest international student assessments Progress in International Reading Literacy Study 2021 PIRLS and the Programme for International Student Assessment 2022 PISA and tries to disentangle the effects of the pandemic from the long term trends in education It is one of the first or maybe the first published volumes to provide a global assessment of the devastating impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on student learning as measured by independent international comparative surveys The 12 countries discussed in this volume represent a wide variety of educational systems including Chile Ecuador England Estonia Italy the Netherlands Poland Portugal South Africa Spain and the United States It compiles diverse scenarios including countries that are high performers countries that perform at the OECD mean and countries that are struggling to attain the OECD average Each country has its history that reflects efforts to cope with pandemic school closures and to improve educational achievement A major topic discussed in this edited volume is related to understanding the diverse circumstances for the variations in results within different countries Why did learning loss in specific locations How much learning was lost Why is a country continuously declining Why is another country constantly improving Why is there higher or less levels of inequality How is a country regularly improving with an outdated curriculum Which policies have worked and which ones have not What can we do now This book is a valuable contribution to answer these concerns based on a diverse sample of countries and research questions

Diverse educational contexts and research on metacognition and motivation to enhance self-directed learning Bernadette Geduld, Byron J. Bunt, Divan Jagals, 2025-02-17 This scholarly book explores the latest education research on metacognition and self directed learning providing practical insights for educators and students As the thirteenth volume in the NWU Self Directed Learning Series it focuses on developing metacognitive skills to enhance self regulation motivation and independent thinking key competencies for success in the 21st century Metacognition plays a vital role in learning helping students plan evaluate and self assess their progress Research shows that students with strong metacognitive strategies achieve better learning outcomes apply knowledge effectively and persist through academic challenges This book offers evidence based teaching strategies to support the development of self regulated learning and motivation in diverse educational settings It examines teaching behaviour and instructional methods that foster metacognitive growth in both basic and higher education With a particular focus on the South African education landscape it extends research in cognitive developmental and applied psychology Researchers and educators will find practical approaches for integrating metacognition into various disciplines making this book a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate education programmes

Code-Switching as a Pedagogical Tool in Bilingual Classrooms Miriam Chitiga, 2021-11-29 Presenting a mixed methods study conducted in a bilingual mathematics classroom in Zimbabwe this text reveals the semantic pedagogical functions and linguistic forms of code switching during STEM instruction Code Switching as a Pedagogical Tool in Bilingual Classrooms offers a detailed analysis of code switching in the context of educational linguistics and reveals ten major pedagogical techniques which illustrate how teachers use code switches to engage students and provide guidance clarification discipline and recaps during individual and whole class interactions Chapters highlight that code switching can be used in a targeted manner to harness the cognitive potential of bilingual speakers and enhance instruction Ultimately the text identifies implications for teacher education language policy and educational leadership more broadly and demonstrates intersections with key areas including functional critical and cultural literacy This text will benefit researchers academics and educators with an interest in bilingualism applied linguistics and secondary education more broadly Those specifically interested in multicultural education sociolinguistics and educational policy will also benefit from this book Primary Education in Crisis Brahm Fleisch,2008 In the past decade the national preoccupation has been on the crisis in secondary schools Lurking behind the intractable problem of low pass rates the dysfunctional schools and the small number of higher grade mathematics and science graduates is the calamity in primary education Drawing on the work of researchers in a range of fields including psychology sociology anthropology linguistics economics the health sciences and mathematics education this book documents the depth and scope of the primary education crisis and provides a comprehensive and rigorous explanation of its causes Primary education in crisis pulls together the wealth of research on health poverty resources language and teaching as factors in academic achievement in reading writing and mathematics At the centre of the book is an analysis of the published studies that systematically document what teachers teach and fail to teach and why it is that teaching is at the heart of the crisis in primary education The author suggests that there are no quick fixes but only hard choices and that for reform to succeed it must be evidence based The Report: South Africa 2014 Oxford Business Group,2014-12-08 Indeed since the end of apartheid in 1994 South Africa has become a major diplomatic player both on the African continent as well as further afield Despite the size of South Africa s economy the country currently faces a number of major economic challenges As of the end of July 2014 the unemployment rate was at 25.5% according to data from Statistics South Africa which was among the highest in the world While the government s long term development plans are generally highly regarded delivery and execution has occasionally been problematic While there are major hurdles that must be cleared given the country s strong institutions and the rapid pace of economic expansion over the past two decades South Africa should be able to look forward to 20 more years of peace and steady sustained economic growth
