

These include dangerous hemorrhage and fistula, a painful internal injury caused by obstructed childbirth that commonly leads to serious maternal morbidities and social exclusion. When Shilpi heard those risks, she invited her husband, Rashid to discuss pregnancy with a counselor. After hearing about the risks, Rashid agreed to delay having children for five years despite pressures from his parents and neighbors to produce an offspring. Together, the couple met with a female health care provider, who informed them about the various family planning available.

Shilpi's mother-in-law and neighbors continued to pressurize the newlyweds. Deeply rooted cultural practices and traditions caused a rift between Shilpi and Rashid and their extended family, some of whose members insulted and criticize the couple. Unable to convince their close relatives of the risks, Shilpi and Rashid returned to the counselor, they took the help of a parent peer who has been trained to speak to other parents about adolescent issue. Shilpi's mother-in-law and neighbors eventually came to understand the harmful effects of early pregnancy on mother and child.

Today, the village no longer pressurizes the couple; their parents and neighbors now support them and speak out against early marriage and pregnancy.
