Spiritual Marriage Dyan Elliott, 2021-05-11 The early Christian and medieval practice of spiritual marriage in which husband and wife mutually and voluntarily relinquish sexual activity for reasons of piety plays an important role in the development of the institution of marriage and in the understanding of female religiosity Drawing on hagiography chronicles theology canon law and pastoral sources Dyan Elliott traces the history of spiritual marriage in the West from apostolic times to the beginning of the sixteenth century New Women in Colonial Korea Hyaeweol Choi, 2013 Your electronic CIP application and accompanying text for Title New Women in Colonial Korea ISBN 9780415517096 was successfully transmitted to the Library of Congress Gentlemen's Prescriptions for Women's Lives: A Thousand Years of Biographies of Chinese Women Sherry J. Mou, 2015-07-17 As far back as the first century BCE Chinese dynastic historians all men began recording the achievements of Chinese women and creating a structure of understanding that would be used to limit and control them To men these women became role models for their daughters and wives to the few literate women readers they became paradigms for their own behavior Thus although these biographies are descriptive by nature they actually became prescriptive Gentlemen's Prescriptions for Women's Lives is an enlightening source for studying Chinese women of the Imperial era as well as for understanding Chinese womanhood in general By contextualizing these biographies the author shows us these women not just as the complaisant calm eyed delicate figures that adorn Confucian texts but also as the products of the Confucian tradition's appropriation of women Women and Confucian Cultures in Premodern China, Korea, and Japan Dorothy Ko, JaHyun Kim Haboush, Joan R. Huang, 2018-04-01 Sheds new light on pre modern Chinese gender relationships in the context of marriage male Confucian literati self presentation and social networks In the first study of its kind about the role played by intimate memory in the mourning literature of late imperial China Martin W Huang focuses on the question of how men mourned and wrote about women to whom they were closely related Drawing upon memoirs epitaphs biographies litanies and elegiac poems Huang explores issues such as how intimacy shaped the ways in which bereaved male authors conceived of womanhood and how such conceptualizations were inevitably also acts of self reflection about themselves as men Their memorial writings reveal complicated self images as husbands brothers sons and educated Confucian males while their representations of women are much more complex and diverse than the representations we find in more public genres such as Confucian female exemplar biographies
