The Message of Isaiah 40-55 John Goldingay, 2005-10-27 The Message of Isaiah 40-55 traces the argument of Isaiah 40-55 to show how the chapters bring a message of encouragement and challenge about God's intention to restore the Judean community some of whose members are in exile in Babylon others living in the city of Jerusalem that has lain devastated since it fell to the Babylonians in 587 The chapters hold before this community's eyes a vision of the nature of its God as the powerful creator and the loving restorer In the course of following the argument the reader becomes aware that the chapters have to deal with their audience's mysterious resistance to their message It cannot give God the kind of response the message needs and deserves nor can it fulfil the role as God's servant that is designed for it God nevertheless remains committed to it The prophet eventually becomes aware of a distinctive personal calling to embody that response until the people are ready to do so It is the prophet's willingness to do this notwithstanding the suffering it brings that embodies the kind of ministry that needs to be exercised to them so that they may be brought back to God and find a restoration of spirit as well as a physical restoration

Moral Rhetoric and the Criminalisation of Squatting Lorna Fox O'Mahony, David O'Mahony, Robin Hickey, 2014-10-24 This collection of critical essays considers the criminalisation of squatting from a range of different theoretical policy and practice perspectives While the practice of squatting has long been criminalised in some jurisdictions the last few years have witnessed the emergence of a newly constituted political concern with unlawful occupation of land With initiatives to address the threat of squatting sweeping across Europe the offence of squatting in a residential building was created in England in 2012 This development which has attracted a large measure of media attention has been widely regarded as a controversial policy departure with many commentators Parliamentarians and professional organisations arguing that its support is premised on misunderstandings of the current law and a precarious evidence base concerning the nature and prevalence of squatting Moral Rhetoric and the Criminalisation of Squatting explores the significance of measures to criminalise squatting for squatters owners and communities The book also interrogates wider themes that draw on political philosophy social policy criminal justice and the nature of ownership to consider how the assimilation of squatting to a contemporary punitive turn is shaping the political social legal and moral landscapes of property housing and crime

Vascular Diseases for the Non-Specialist Tulio Pinho Navarro, Alan Dardik, Daniela Junqueira, Ligia Cisneros, 2017-01-03 This book aims to provide non specialist healthcare practitioners with current focused and objective information on the most common vascular diseases encountered in daily clinical practice In day to day clinical practice many healthcare practitioners do not have a working knowledge of the most common vascular diseases that frequently arise in patient care Some of these topics include aneurysms peripheral arterial disease diabetic foot venous thromboembolism cerebrovascular disease aortic dissection and acute limb ischemia These commonly encountered vascular diseases are becoming public health issues due to their high morbidity and mortality as well as increasing healthcare costs Since patients with vascular diseases are often referred to non specialists the general practitioner must know how to properly handle the most common vascular diseases encountered in daily clinical practice For each disease the concept epidemiology natural history diagnosis and treatment are described followed by essential advice on what the non specialist can do for the patient and when to refer the patient to a specialist Jacobs' Band Monthly ,1928
