Chinese or Any other Asian. The boxes that people of vastly varied East and South East Asian heritage have to tick when declaring their ethnicity on many forms in the UK. This represents a shameful sweeping together of a diverse heritage and experience. East and South East Asian people have lived and worked in the UK for centuries, fought for the British Army in both world wars, have influenced British culture through food, writing, music and art in a multitude of ways. And yet this influence is often overlooked. People of ESEA heritage experience unique forms of racism. Asian food is mocked as unhealthy and Asian restaurants as dirty. ESEA women are exoticised and sexualised and assumed to be the nanny of their mixed race children. The community was scapegoated for the Covid 19 pandemic. Anna Sulan Masing addresses these issues in a comprehensive way. She explores what it means to be East and South East Asian in Britain today and celebrates the varied experiences that make up ESEA identity. Powerful, moving and illuminating, this will be a must read for anyone interested in the make up of our multicultural society. Vital reading but also vital in the truest sense, real, alive, full of humanity, interrogatory, empathetic, energising. Claire Kohda, author of WOMAN EATING.
