independently of Australian governments      National Testing in Schools Bob Lingard, Greg Thompson, Sam Sellar, 2015-11-06 Over the last two decades large scale national or provincial standardised testing has become prominent in the schools of many countries around the globe National Testing in Schools An Australian Assessment draws on research to consider the nature of national testing and its multiple effects including media responses and constructions such as league tables of performance pressures within school systems and on schools effects on the work and identities of principals and teachers and impacts on the experience of schooling for many young people including those least advantaged Using Australia as the case site for global concerns regarding national testing this book will be an invaluable companion for education researchers teacher educators teacher education students and teachers globally      Becoming a Teacher: Knowledge, Skills and Issues Maggie Clarke, Sharon Pittaway, 2014-04-23 Marsh's Becoming a Teacher 6e continues to offer pre service teachers a practical and user friendly guide to learning to teach that students find invaluable throughout their entire degree Marsh covers a comprehensive introduction to teaching methodology preparing pre service teachers for the challenges they face in a 21st century classroom All chapters in this new edition have been updated with new approaches and current references by the two new authors Maggie Clarke and Sharon Pittaway The approach in this 6th edition is more reflective and gives readers an even greater opportunity to interact with issues raised in the text      Authentic Assessment and Evaluation Approaches and Practices in a Digital Era, 2021-09-06 In this book 37 international academics illustrate how authentic assessment is an effective measure of intellectual achievement as it requires the demonstration of deep understanding and complex problem solving through the performance of exemplary tasks By exploring the concept of authentic assessment in both tertiary and school education the authors in these chapters argue that authentic assessment is not only the measurement of significant intellectual accomplishments but also an important pedagogical structure Authentic assessment is a concept more closely defined as an umbrella term that seeks to immerse learners in environments where they can gain highly practical and lifelong learning skills Authentic assessment has been on the educational agenda for a number of years and keeps being a powerful tool for assessing students 21st century competencies in the context of global educational reforms Contributors are Pinar Akyildiz Fatma Nur Akta Chrysoula Arcoudis Tasos Barkatsas Michael Belcher Antonios Bouras Athina Chalkiadaki Jere Confrey Rebecca Cooper Yksel Dede Paul Denny Zara Ersozlu Ivan Fortunato Linda Hobbs Marj Horne Fragkiskos Kalavasis Katerina Kasimatis Belinda Kennedy Gillian Kidman Huk Yuen Law Susan Ledger Kathy Littlewood Jiabo Liu Michelle Ludecke Tricia McLaughlin Juanjo Mena Andreas Moutsios Rentzos Greg Oates Anastasia Papadopoulou Fabiano Pereira dos Santos Angela Rogers Grinne Ryan Rebecca Seah Meetal Shah Hazel Tan Naomi Wilks Smith Dallas Wingrove Qiaoping Zhang and Xiaolei Zhang      My School Lesley Scanlon, 2014-12-17 Education issues feature almost daily in print media online on the radio and on television much of which focuses on the perceived deficits of students and teachers Singled out for special attention are low socio economic status SES schools which are frequently characterised by teachers and students with little investment in learning and teaching Yet within this plethora of educational discussion there is no contemporary longitudinal study of what it means to learn and teach in a disadvantaged school within the policy context of the education revolution in Australia Drawing on 500 interviews conducted over a four period with the Principal parents teachers and students at a regional low SES school this book challenges the profile of one school as represented on the My School website which publishes the results of National Assessment Program in Literacy and Numeracy NAPLAN Chapters situate the original research within an international and national educational context before exploring topics including leadership and management student behaviour constructs of the good teacher the involvement of parents in school and the digital revolution The book closes with an appraisal of the major themes that emerged from the multiple perspectives of the study This is the first book to provide a longitudinal ethnographic study of a school in Australia which examines the impact of the education revolution on the Principal parents teachers and students It comprehensively challenges the official My School representation of a low SES school and will appeal to researchers in education as well as those involved in postgraduate teacher education and sociology courses both from Australia and internationally

Educational Philosophy for 21st Century Teachers Thomas Stehlik, 2018-04-20 This book explores education in the 21st century in post modern Western societies through a philosophical lens Taking a broad perspective of education and its attendant terminology assumptions myths and influences the author examines why we teach as opposed to how In doing so he includes not only teachers but all adults who are involved in bringing up children Applying philosophical theories throughout history to present day practice this volume is sure to be a useful resource not only for teachers who are just starting out but those with an interest in education in the past present and future This wide ranging book will be valuable for educators parents and educational policy makers and all those who believe it takes a village to raise a child Education Game Changers Karen E. Starr, 2014-12-08 Education Game Changers is written for an international readership This book refers to all education levels and sectors and builds on research in educational leadership education business and organizational change Karen E Starr describes policy paradoxes challenging the sustainability of educational provision as we know it and the imperatives they present for educational leadership business and governance This book critiques the paradoxical education policy context while exploring alternative futures they may spawn It ponders both possibilities and pitfalls that cannot be ignored by instrumental players such as governments policy makers educational leaders and business managers researchers and analysts This book unveils rising cases of education business failures around the world the paucity of governance and business skill on educational boards and the irrational contradictions faced by governments in determining education policy Super Dimensions in Globalisation and Education David R. Cole, Christine Woodrow, 2016-02-05 This volume is the first major production of the globalisation research strand of the Centre for Educational Research at Western Sydney University This book makes a significant contribution to the theory of and research in globalisation and education and tackles the topics of superdiversity and supercomplexity The book's thesis is that the effects of globalisation on education can only be understood if the specific yet complex conditions of globalisation in education are investigated The book takes an international approach to understanding globalisation and does not restrict itself to just one methodological or theoretical plane of investigation Education is one of these frontline domains in which the effects of superdiversity cannot be dismissed minimized or denied The continuously increasing complexity of learning environments is raising critical issues at every level from description over analysis to theoretical generalization and this book is a first and fruitful attempt at charting these waters This pioneering book will remain a key text for many years to come Jan Bloomaert Professor of Language Culture and Globalization and Director of the Babylon Center Tilburg University the Netherlands This provocative collection works from two premises that today there is superdiversity in our globalised world and related is a supercomplexity of theoretical and methodological approaches The collection proffers multifarious challenges for educational theory research and practice in working with through and across these two premises As such Super Dimensions in Globalisation and Education is essential reading for all educational researchers whatever their interests or location Professor Bob Lingard The University of Queensland Australia This is a highly imaginative book that stops flat earth and convergence arguments dead in their tracks Its genius is to bring super complexity and super diversity into a conversation with each other and with education and in doing so shed light on the numerous and unexpected ways in which global processes are shaping education in revealing and compelling ways Any scholar concerned with globalisation and education will find Super Dimensions in Globalisation and Education a must have on their reading list Professor Susan Robertson Director of the Centre for Globalisation Education and Social Futures University of Bristol UK This is an absorbing and compelling collection It takes readers on a kaleidoscopic journey through various intricate expressions of the nexus between globalisation and education And it offers multiple ways that such expressions can be thought and rethought In transcending conventional categorisations it invites educators to do so too Professor Jane Kenway Australian Professorial Fellow Australian Research Council Education Faculty Monash University Australia High-Stakes Testing in Education Theo J.H.M Eggen, Gordon Stobart, 2015-10-14 High stakes educational testing is a global phenomenon which is increasing in both scale and importance Assessments are high stakes when there are serious consequences for one or more stakeholders Historically tests have largely been used for selection or for providing a licence to practise making them high stakes for the test takers Testing is now also used for the purposes of improving standards of teaching and learning and of holding schools accountable for their students results These tests then become high stakes for teachers and schools especially when they have to meet externally imposed targets More recent has been the emergence of international comparative testing which has become high stakes for governments and policy makers as their education systems are judged in relation to the performances of other countries In this book we draw on research which examines each of these uses of high stakes testing The articles evaluate the impact of such assessments and explore the issues of value and fairness which they raise To underline the international appeal of high stakes testing the studies are drawn from Australia Africa the Caribbean Europe former Soviet republics and North America Collectively they illustrate the power of high stakes assessment in shaping for better or for worse policy making and schooling This book was originally published as a special issue of Assessment in Education Principles Policy Practice
