Question 1

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

There was a strong breeze, which is unusual during a winter night in Gujarat. The sugarcane swayed wildly under a moonless sky. I pulled my jacket around me and adjusted my binoculars.

"You won't need them. It will come right down there, next to the cow," village leader Hitesh Patel whispered in my ears.

I felt like asking him if it was safe on the roof where we were perched, but then Vitthal Vasava signalled from the cow shed below.

"It seems to be coming from the riverside," he said. "You will see it any moment. Stay still and don't make any noise or you'll invite trouble," Hitesh reminded me. Another couple of minutes passed, and then a leopard leaped out from behind the shed and made its way towards a cow that was chained to a tree nearby.

As the leopard neared, it seemed there would be no escape for the cow. However, what I saw was something else - totally baffling. As if enacting a character from Rudyard Kipling's 'Jungle Book', the leopard ducked under the cow's neck, stretched out lazily and began to purr. At first, the cow ignored its companion but eventually gave in to the leopard's playful nudges and started licking its fur as if it was one of its calves. The leopard started pushing the cow's belly and after a while, crept under her neck and lay there as if resting. Then it stood up and slowly walked back to the riverside.
