Autobiography

4 December 2012

My name is Maria Angelina Bacarella. I was born on March 7, 1995, in Tawas City, Michigan. My parents are James and Michelle Bacarella, and I have three younger siblings, Sophia, Alex, and Samuel. I attended Holy Family Catholic School in East Tawas from kindergarten until sixth grade. While there I participated in band, choir, Girl Scouts, Council of Catholic Girls, volleyball, softball, and basketball. I was on honor roll and received an academic achievement award. Attending a catholic school helped me to grow academically, in my faith, and as a person, giving me high moral standards. In seventh and eighth grade I attended Tawas Junior High. I was involved in volleyball, basketball, softball, and Club PRIDE. I was on honor roll every semester, and received the presidential academic award.

I currently attend Tawas High School. I am involved in Iosco Pride, Spanish club, liturgical dance, youth group, Student Senate, volleyball, soccer, and National Honor Society. I currently have a 3.88 cumulative g.p.a. and am 8th in my class of 117. Though my school, I go to coop every day for two hours in the 81st District court. While there I have learned many school that pertain to a future career in law. I file papers, type bonds, and observe court. This has given me first-hand experience identifying legal documents and understanding how to proceed in court.

I have am very motivated to create the best possible future for myself, and have worked very hard to set that up. I have been on the honor roll every marking period thus far in my high school career. I received my academic and athletics varsity letters, an honors pass, the hustle

Teaching About Diversity Melissa J. Marks,Scott DeWitt,2020-05-01 This book offers easily implemented strategies for use with secondary and undergraduate students to promote greater engagement with the realities of diversity and commitment to social justice within their classrooms Defining diversity broadly the book provides effective pedagogical techniques to help students question their own assumptions think critically and discuss issues within race religion ethnicity gender sexual orientation socioeconomic status and ability The K 12 student population is increasingly diverse in terms of race ethnicity language religion socio economic status and family structure However the overwhelming majority of teachers continues to come from White non urban middle class backgrounds Fletcher 2014 Hughes et al 2011 These differences can have serious repercussions for student learning Non majority students who feel that their culture or background is not acknowledged or accepted at school are likely to disengage from expected academic and social activities Hughes et al 2011 Concurrently the majority students remain unaware of privilege and ignorant of societal systemic discrimination In order to teach for social justice ideas regarding power structure privilege and oppression need to be discussed openly Fear of upsetting students or not knowing how to handle the issue of social justice are commonly heard reasons for not discussing difficult subjects Marks Binkley Daly 2014 However when teachers choose not to discuss topics within diversity students assume that the topics are taboo dangerous or unimportant These assumptions impede students abilities to ask important questions learn how to speak about issues effectively and comprehend the complex challenges
