Exploring Religion and Diversity in Canada Catherine Holtmann,2018-06-25 This book is intended for advanced undergraduate and graduate students interested in learning about the many ways in which religious diversity is manifest in day to day life Canada Each chapter addresses the challenges and opportunities associated with religious diversity in a different realm of social life from families to churches from education to health care and from Muslims to atheists The contributors present key concepts relevant statistical data and real life stories from qualitative data The content of the book is supplemented by links to online learning resources including videos websites and photo essays The Age of

Knowledge James Dzisah,Henry Etzkowitz,2011-10-14 The Age of Knowledge emphasizes that the ongoing transformations of knowledge both within universities and for society more generally must be understood as a reflection of the larger changes in the constitutive social structures within which they are invariably produced translated and reproduced Relation and

Resistance Sailaja Krishnamurti,Becky R. Lee,2021-09-30 In Canada women s bodies are often at the centre of debates about religious pluralism multiculturalism and secularism Women have long played a critical role in building and maintaining diasporic religious communities and networks and they have also been catalysts for change and transformation within religious groups and the wider community Relation and Resistance explores the stories and lives of racialized women connected with religious diaspora communities in Canada Contributors from across disciplines show how women are conceptualizing traditions in transformative ways challenging prevailing assumptions about diasporic religion as nostalgically entrenched in the past The collected essays include chapters on feminist and queer women thinking critically about Hindu and Muslim identities and beliefs and challenging anti Black racism and settler colonialism Afro Caribbean and M tis writers using literature to explore religion and belonging the impact of women s participation in Japanese Chinese and Pakistani transnational religious organizations and marriage migration and gender equality in the Punjabi Sikh and Malayali Christian communities The volume closes with a chapter exploring M tis diasporic experience and inviting readers to think critically about diasporic religion on Indigenous land An innovative and timely volume Relation and Resistance reveals that a deeper understanding of women s experiences of displacement migration race and gender is critical to the study of religion in Canada

Urban Sociology in Canada Peter McGahan,2013-10-22 Urban Sociology in Canada Second Edition introduces the fundamentals of the theoretical structure of Canadian urban studies The book is comprised of 11 chapters that are organized into six parts The text provides census data of various Canadian cities along with urban empirical studies to help illustrate the generalization and concepts The book first covers the classical foundations of urban sociology and then proceeds to discussing the growth of urban system The third part talks about the process of entrance to the urban system while the fourth part deals with the spatial shape of the urban system The last two parts tackle urbanism and the regulation of urban system respectively The book will be of great use to social scientists who involve urban population as the main demographics of their research study

Gender Bias in Scholarship Winnie Tamm,Gordon Hamilton,2006-01-01 This multi disciplinary anthology is about hermeneutical issues pertaining to gender ideology in university scholarship The authors provide from their own discipline an extensive examination of the issues raised in the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada pamphlet On the Treatment of the Sexes in Research by Margrit Eichler and Jeanne Lapointe 1985 Gender bias is described and evaluated in the light of possible alternative perspectives which would alter the content and shape of research including women as subjects of research and as researchers The authors underscore the importance of acknowledging underlying gender imagery in the selection interpretation and communication of research data They explore the notion of research as a social construction which is strongly aligned with the socially constructed notion of male and dissociated from the socially constructed notion of female The focus is on refraining research ideology to include both female and male constructed imagery Contributors include Marlene Mackie sociology Carolyn Larsen psychology Estelle Dansereau literary criticism Gisele Thibault education Alice Mansell art Eliane Leslau Silverman history Yvonne Lefebvre biochemistry Petra von Morstein philosophy and Naomi Black political science

The Sociology of Assessment: Comparative and Policy Perspectives Patricia Broadfoot, 2021-01-26 In the World Library of Educationalists series international experts themselves compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field In a collection of her most influential work spanning nearly four decades Patricia Broadfoot applies her trademark sociological and comparative perspective to empirical studies at every level of the educational system From her classic long term study of the impact of changing national assessment policies on pupils and teachers in the classrooms of England and France to her sustained championship of the need for a better understanding of the impact of assessment on learning Broadfoot has consistently championed the need for a more developed sociological understanding of assessment Broadfoot's accessible writing offers insights that are as novel as they are important for the education of future generations This book allows readers to follow themes and strands across Patricia Broadfoot's career and will be of interest to all followers of her work and any reader interested in the development of teaching learning and assessment

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Exploring Gender Relations Marlene Mackie, 1983 Canadian Sociology Kanwar-Swenson, 1999-09 Perspectives on Women in the 1980s Joan Turner, Lois Emery, 1983-01-01 We are now fifteen years into the second wave of feminism and public opinion polls show majority support for all the basic issues raised by the women's movement This collection of articles focuses on strategies and directions for the movement that will enable all women to benefit from changing attitudes in the 1980s The Role of Coloniality, Decoloniality, and Education in Shaping Perspectives on Extremism Helal Hossain Dhali, 2024-03-19 This book extends a comprehensive overview of the treatment of extremism in education in Bangladesh using a study of perceptions among students to explore proactive measures for the prevention of various types and forms of extremism prevalent among youth It offers a critical holistic and student centred study of the role of formal education in shaping perceptions of extremism and intersectional differences among individuals drawing on data from university students The author employs post colonial theory and multicultural educational approaches to highlight how understandings of extremism differ across young adults and policymakers Ultimately it demonstrates that students overall understanding of extremism is much broader than that of policymakers and how understandings differ between male and female students at the intersection of rural and urban locations and socio economic positions As such it foregrounds a need to involve and organize formal education as a proactive means to raise awareness and counter all forms of extremism through incorporating specific teaching strategies into pedagogical practices to foster an anti communalist humanistic critical multicultural and cosmopolitan outlook among students It will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests across multicultural education comparative and international education the sociology of education extremism and conflict and peace studies

Making Knowledge Count Peter Harries-Jones,1991 Largely due to the impact of human rights legislation especially in Canada the radical dissent of the 1960s has been replaced by the more co operative framework of social advocacy Political activity is no longer necessarily radical or rooted in social class but instead expresses broad themes of cultural aspiration Consequently social activists and social scientists need a new understanding of the role of dissent in society Peter Harries Jones and the contributing authors provide that understanding in Making Knowledge Count

Lifelong Learning in Paid and Unpaid Work D.W. Livingstone,2015-04-08 Lifelong Learning is essential to all individuals and in recent years has become a guiding principle for policy initiatives ranging from national economic competition to issues of social cohesion and personal fulfilment However despite the importance of lifelong learning there is a critical absence of direct international evidence on its extent content and outcomes Lifelong Learning in Paid and Unpaid Work provides a new paradigm for understanding work and learning documenting the active contribution of workers to their development and their adaptation to paid and unpaid work Empirical evidence drawn from national surveys in Canada and eight related case studies is used to explore the current learning activities of those in paid employment housework and volunteer work addressing all forms of learning including formal schooling further education courses informal training and self directed learning particularly in the context of organisational and technological change Proposing an expanded conceptual framework for investigating the relationships between learning and work the contributors offer new insights into the ways in which adult learning adapts to and helps reshape the wide contemporary world of work throughout the life course
