Explaining and Exploring Diversity in Agricultural Technology Annelou van Gijn, John Whittaker, Patricia C. Anderson, 2014-08-29 This volume is the outcome of collaborative European research among archaeologists archaeobotanists ethnographers historians and agronomists and frequently uses experiments in archaeology It aims to establish new common ground for integrating different approaches and for viewing agriculture from the standpoint of the human actors involved Each chapter provides an interdisciplinary overview of the skills used and the social context of the pursuit of agriculture highlighting examples of tools technologies and processes from land clearance to cereal processing and food preparation This is the second of three volumes in the EARTH monograph series The dynamics of non industrial agriculture 8 000 years of resilience and innovation which shows the great variety of agricultural practices in human terms in their social political cultural and legal contexts

Plants and People Alexandre Chevalier, Elena Marinova, Leonor Pena-Chocarro, 2014-04-30 This first monograph in the EARTH series The dynamics of non industrial agriculture 8 000 years of resilience and innovation approaches the great variety of agricultural practices in human terms It focuses on the relationship between plants and people the complexity of agricultural processes and their organisation within particular communities and societies Collaborative European research among archaeologists archaeobotanists ethnographers historians and agronomists using a broad analytical scale of investigation seeks to establish new common ground for integrating different approaches By means of interdisciplinary examples this book showcases the relationship between people and plants across wide ranging and diverse spatial and temporal milieus including crop diversity the use of wild foodstuffs social context status and choices of food plants

Times of Neolithic Transition along the Western Mediterranean Oreto García-Puchol, Domingo C. Salazar-García, 2017-07-01 The study of the Neolithic transition constitutes a major theme in prehistoric research The process of economic change from foraging to farming involved one of the main transformations in human behavior patterns This volume focuses on investigating the neolithization process at the periphery of one of the main routes in the expansion of the Neolithic in Europe the Western Mediterranean region Recent advances in radiocarbon dating mathematical and computational models archaeometric analysis and biomolecular techniques together with new archaeological discoveries provide novel insights into this topic This volume is organized into five sections new discoveries and new ideas about the

Mediterranean Neolithic reconstructing times and modeling processes landscape interaction farming and herding dietary subsistence of early farming communities human dispersal mechanisms and cultural transmission This volume will also provide new empirical data to help readers assess different theoretical frameworks and narratives which underlie the models proposed to explain the expansion of farming from the Middle East into Europe The Excavation at Sarakenos Cave in Boeotia, Greece Adamantios Sampson, 2022-04-25 This book details the importance of the many years of excavation Sarakenos Cave Greece carried out from 1994 until today This site has been proven to be the largest inhabited cave of the prehistoric period in Greece with 12 phases of habitation from the Middle Paleolithic to the Bronze Age The text discusses the cultural sequence from the time when Neanderthals settled in the cave around 40000 years BP until the end of prehistory Special importance is given to the paleo environment vegetation and climate of the area per period which is reconstructed based on pollen samples collected during the excavations Stone in Metal Ages Francesca Manclossi, Florine Marchand, Linda Boutoille, Sylvie Cousseran-Néré, 2020-07-30 Papers from Session XXXIV 6 of the XVIII UISPP World Congress 2018 were divided into two parts the first dealing with lithic technology use wear analyses and the relation between the decline of stone and the development of metallurgy while the second focused on stone tools used for metallurgy This publication combines these two parts Agricultural and Pastoral Landscapes in Pre-Industrial Society Fèlix Retamero, Inge Schjellerup, Althea Davies, 2014-12-01 Through a series of case studies this third volume in the Earth series deals with the technological constraints and innovations that enabled societies to survive and thrive across a range of environmental conditions The contributions are structured into three sections to draw out particular commonalities and contrasts in the choices made by pre industrial communities in the construction of varied landscapes and cultural heritage Landnam from the Old Norse for taking of land deals with colonization including the drivers and processes through which colonizers developed an understanding of the productive potential and limitations of their new lands Fields and field systems Field walls are a distinctive and apparently timeless characteristic of many pre industrial farming landscapes but they present many the challenges to their study such as the effects of plowing abandonment and land use change and of urban development in fertile lowland zones which may eradicate reduce or conceal past systems of land use and division The importance of indirect and proxy evidence is illustrated and the value of interdisciplinary and modeling approaches emphasized Agro pastoralism focuses on the complex time space adaptations devised for managing cultivation and livestock production particularly the need to prevent stock incursions into arable fields during the growing season whilst making effective use of seasonal grazing resources The contributions focus on mountainous areas where temporary migrations in the form of transhumance provided access to a diversity of resources based around seasonal constraints on their availability and productivity The Sacred Landscape at Leska and Minoan Kythera Mercourios Georgiadis, 2023-01-01 This volume presents the results of the survey and excavation of a second peak sanctuary on Minoan Kythera at Leska An introduction to the archaeological background of the island is provided as well as a discussion on peak sanctuaries there and in Minoan Crete The discovery of Leska and the research conducted there are described and a discussion of the diachronic use of the summit is presented following analyses of the material remains including pottery figurines stone vessels stone tools and jewelry Detailed discussions of the active role and significance of the landscape and the cultic practices allow an in depth analysis of the links between society and cult and also of the ways in which the landscape and immediate surroundings at Leska were sacralised in the Middle Minoan IB to Late Minoan IB phase The broader analysis of the sacred landscape on Kythera provides a unique opportunity to assess Aegean religion during the Minoan period outside Crete Harrowing the Gospels: A Cambodian (American) Rereading of Agriculture in Mark and Matthew Kristofer Dale Phan Coffman, 2025-06-30 Despite the growth in archaeology in the Galilee and sustained interest in the economic background of the Jesus movement agriculture and agrarian life remain under theorized in the study of the Gospels Harrowing the Gospels A Cambodian American Rereading of Agriculture in Mark and Matthew interrogates constructions of ethnography economy and ethnicity in previous Gospel research to both situate itself in and critique the gaps in the attention to these subjects By reading from a Cambodian American perspective and through the tools of postcolonial and social scientific analysis this volume constructs a new working methodology fit to the problems of reading agriculture Postagrarian Analysis Journal of Greek Archaeology Volume 3 2018, 2018-10-31 True to its initial aims the latest volume of the Journal of Greek Archaeology runs the whole chronological range of Greek Archaeology while including every kind of material culture Plain of Plenty: Farming Practices, Food Production, and the Agricultural Potential of the Late Bronze Age (1600-1200 BCE) Argive Plain, Greece Riia Elina Timonen, 2024-11-21 The Argive Plain was central to Late Bronze Age Mycenaean culture Renowned for its settlements and treasures less is known about its agricultural sustainability This study examines Mycenaean farming in the Argive Plain and its societal implications investigating if resource depletion contributed to the Bronze Age collapse Lithic Technologies in Sedentary Societies Rachel A. Horowitz, Grant S. McCall, 2019-06-21 Lithic Technologies in Sedentary Societies examines lithic technology from ancient societies in Mesoamerica the Near East South Asia and North America showcasing the important contributions in depth lithic analysis can make to the study of sedentary societies around the world Using cutting edge analytical techniques these case studies address difficult anthropological questions concerning economic social and political issues as well as global trends in lithic production Lithic analysis focused on sedentary societies especially in places like Mesoamerica has previously been neglected mostly because of the high frequency of informal tools but such bias limits the ways in which both lithic production and economic organization are investigated Bringing the importance of studying such technologies to the fore and emphasizing the vital anthropological questions that lithics can answer Lithic Technologies in Sedentary Societies is a valuable resource for scholars and students of lithic technology and sedentary complex societies Contributors Fumi Arakawa Mary A Davis James

Enloe Dan Healan Francesca Manclossi Theodore Marks Jayur Madhusudan Mehta Jason S R Paling Steve Rosen John Whittaker Lithic Studies: Anatolia and Beyond Adnan Baysal, 2022-03-31 This volume aims to show networks of cultural interactions by focusing on the latest lithic studies from Turkey Greece and the Balkans bringing to the forefront the connectedness and techno cultural continuity of knapped and ground stone technologies Exploring the Materiality of Food 'Stuff' Louise Steel, Katharina Zinn, 2016-11-10 From remote antiquity to contemporary contexts food and the stuff of food remains central to people's daily experiences as well as their sense and expression of identity This volume explores the materiality of foodstuffs past and present examining humanity's intriguingly complex relationships with and experiences of food The book also makes a fresh contribution to our understanding of materiality through a novel focus on material culture analysing objects used to prepare wrap serve and consume food and the tactile experiences involved in its production and consumption Considering a wide range of cultures spanning from ancient China to modern day Kenya this broad collection of interdisciplinary chapters reveal the multiple interplays between foods bodies material worlds rituals and embodied knowledge that emerge from these encounters and which in turn shape the material culture of food Exploring the Materiality of Food Stuff makes an important contribution to this burgeoning field and will be of interest to archaeologists and anthropologists working in the key area of food research The Matter of Çatalhöyük Ian Hodder, 2021-04-01 This volume presents material artifacts recovered from the site in these seasons including a range of clay based objects ceramics clay balls tokens figurines as well as those made of stone shell and textile Pathways through Arslantepe Matteo Pontoglio Emili, 2021-12-06 Raccolta di articoli in onore di Marcella Frangipane riguardo il sito archeologico Arslantepe in Antaolia orientale Hippocrates Now Helen King, 2019-11-14 This book is available as open access through the Knowledge Unlatched programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com We need to talk about Hippocrates Current scholarship attributes none of the works of the Hippocratic corpus to him and the ancient biographical traditions of his life are not only late but also written for their own promotional purposes Yet Hippocrates features powerfully in our assumptions about ancient medicine and our beliefs about what medicine and the physician himself should be In both orthodox and alternative medicine he continues to be a model to be emulated This book will challenge widespread assumptions about Hippocrates and in the process about the history of medicine in ancient Greece and beyond and will also explore the creation of modern myths about the ancient world Why do we continue to use Hippocrates and how are new myths constructed around his name How do news stories and the internet contribute to our picture of him And what can this tell us about wider popular engagements with the classical world today in memes quotes and online Making Journeys Catriona D. Gibson, Kerri Cleary, Catherine J. Frieman, 2021-02-01 Despite notable explorations of past dynamics much of the archaeological literature on mobility remains dominated by accounts of earlier prehistoric gatherer hunters or the long distance exchange of materials Refinements of scientific dating techniques isotope trace element and aDNA analyses in conjunction with phenomenological investigation computer aided landscape modeling and GIS style approaches to large data sets allow us to follow the movement of people animals and objects in the past with greater precision and conviction One route into exploring mobility in the past may be through exploring the movements and biographies of artifacts Challenges lie not only in tracing the origins and final destinations of objects but in the less tangible in between journeys and the hands they passed through Biographical approaches to artifacts include the recognition that culture contact and hybridity affect material culture in meaningful ways Furthermore discrete and bounded sites still dominate archaeological inquiry leaving the spaces and connectivities between features and settlements unmapped These are linked to an under explored middle spectrum of mobility a range nestled between everyday movements and one off ambitious voyages We wish to explore how these travels involved entangled meshworks of people animals objects knowledge sets and identities By crossing and re crossing cultural contextual and tenurial boundaries such journeys could create diasporic and novel communities ideas and materialities

Social Perspectives on Ancient Lives from Paleoethnobotanical Data Matthew P. Sayre, Maria C. Bruno, 2017-03-20 This volume contributes to the emerging topic of social paleoethnobotany with a series of papers exploring dynamic aspects of past social life particularly the day to day practices and politics of procuring preparing and consuming plants The contributors to this volume illustrate how one can bridge differences between the natural and social sciences through the more socially focused interpretations of botanical datasets The chapters in this volume draw on a diversity of plant derived datasets macrobotanical microbotanical and molecular which contribute to general paleoethnobotanical practice today They also carefully consider the contexts in which the plant remains were recovered These studies illustrate that the richest interpretations come from projects that are able to consider the widest range of data types particularly as they aim to move beyond simple descriptions of food items and environmental settings The authors in this volume address several themes including the collection of wild resources the domestication of crops and spread of agriculture the role of plant remains in questions regarding domestic life ritual and gender as well as the broader implications of a socially engaged paleoethnobotany These studies point a path forward for the constantly evolving field of paleoethnobotany one that is methodologically rigorous and theoretically engaged Together these papers shed light on ways in which the specialized analysis of plant remains can contribute to theory building and advancing archaeological understanding of past lifeways

Agro-Ecological Intensification of Agricultural Systems in the African Highlands Bernard Vanlauwe, Piet van Asten, Guy Blomme, 2013-12-17 There is an urgent need to increase agricultural productivity in sub Saharan Africa in a sustainable and economically viable manner Transforming risk averse smallholders into business oriented producers that invest in producing surplus food for sale provides a formidable challenge both from a technological and socio political perspective This book addresses the issue of agricultural intensification in the humid highland areas of Africa regions with relatively good agricultural potential but where the scarce land resources are increasingly under pressure from the growing population and from climate change In addition to introductory and synthesis chapters the book focuses on four themes system components required for agricultural intensification the integration of components at the system level drivers for adoption of technologies towards intensification and the dissemination of complex knowledge It provides case studies of improved crop and soil management for staple crops such as cassava and bananas as well as examples of how the livelihoods of rural people can be improved The book provides a valuable resource for researchers development actors students and policy makers in agricultural systems and economics and in international development It highlights and addresses key challenges and opportunities that exist for sustainable agricultural intensification in the humid highlands of sub Saharan Africa
