A Day in the Life of a College Student Leader Sarah M. Marshall,Anne M. Hornak,2023-07-03 Sarah Marshall and Anne Hornak have done a magnificent job exploring diverse contexts in which college students expand their individual leadership capacity and learn and practice engaging in relational leadership with others These cases are realistic because they were gathered from their interviews with real students engaging in leadership From whatever perspective students can learn that they are doing leadership when they work with others to address shared issues solve shared problems and work toward positive change from the Foreword by Susan R Komives This book presents over 230 case studies that reflect typical issues faced by undergraduate student leaders The scenarios cover the range of functional areas of student life These cases are intended for use by faculty and student affairs professionals as training tools for new student leaders who generally receive little preparation before assuming their positions Cases provide an opportunity for students to roleplay and discuss scenarios before they encounter potentially similar events in their daily lives as leaders engage students intensely in their learning as they work through the issues and problems and promote meaningful dialogue and discussion of relevant theory The cases are based on real life dilemmas and reflect both contemporary and historical campus issues They are derived from interviews with 110 undergraduates and 11 student affairs administrators from large public research institutions small privates community colleges and mid sized comprehensive schools The book begins with guidance on how to use case studies effectively and on how to incorporate theory in analyzing them The cases are then grouped into chapters each of which focuses on a particular type of student organization The cases vary in length to allow for multiple uses Shorter cases can be role played and discussed in leadership training workshops while longer cases can be used as take home assignments or debated during longer training sessions The book concludes with general advice for student leaders To assist with the facilitation process the authors provide discussion questions to begin the analysis of each case The cases are written broadly enough to allow for a variety of possible solutions Partnership with Parents in Early Childhood Settings Liz

Hryniewicz, Paulette Luff, 2020-10-29 Partnership with Parents in Early Childhood Settings examines how practitioners can work effectively with parents and families acknowledging the complex nature of these relationships Drawing on policy research and practice from kindergartens and early years settings in five European countries it provides insight into how political social and cultural contexts affect the relationships between educators and families and the impact this has on children s early experiences The book is based upon learning from an Erasmus mobility project between educators from five countries in OMEP the World Organisation for Early Childhood Education It presents examples from practice and research from the different countries and highlights some positive and practical ways in which professionals can work with parents as well as potential barriers to parental partnership and how these might be overcome Each section focuses on a different country and allows for a detailed exploration into how relationships are developed and sustained for the benefit of young children and their families in different places Throughout the reader is encouraged to reflect on their current understanding of parental partnership and how they can plan for positive parental partnership working in the future This thought provoking text will be an indispensable resource for students of early childhood and teachers and practitioners as well as academics and those with an interest in early years social and educational policy
